Chapter 1: Ceres

Ceres in Sagittarius:

You nurture people with your generosity cheerfulness and encouragement. Giving them the optimism and openness they need. You aim to inspire them and make them feel like they are it. Your honest disposition and behavior is also a gift for them to know your devotion to them. All of these things are exactly what you need in order to feel cared for. Higher education and philosophy also help you feel nurtured; learning more, it feeds your soul. Your parents allowed you to expand beyond the philosophies or beliefs of the family tradition.

Ceres in 12th house:

This placement is great for working as a caretaker in the twelfth house areas, such as, hospitals for nursing, or cafeteria work in prisons, and large corporations. Your work is usually behind the scenes, not in the public eye. Ceres in the twelfth indicates a empathic personality, one who subconsciously feels, the needs of others. This can be an issue, if you don't look after your own nurturing needs. You may have a hard time figuring out what your caretaking needs are, as they are subconscious for you. Look deep within to insure you take care of yourself, before co-dependency sets in.

Ceres Trine Jupiter:

There may be challenges with food and eating, watching to be cautious of over eating will be a challenge. There can be issues with foreign foods or rich foods that don't agree with you. Over nurturing of others like smothering or killing with kindness may be something you have to watch, as it is the way you too were nurtured in your childhood.

Ceres Square Uranus:

There may have been a broken home or an early divorce in your upbringing, that may have even caused you to be a little rebellious especially to mother. At the very least your upbringing was not the usual and may have been a little stressful or erratic at times. This can carry over into relationship issues where it is hard for you to get "close" to others, on a deep and feeling level. There is a strong need to regain balance in relationships while being able to be yourself and keep your independence. Your relationship with mom improves as you get older, as there may have been too much going on for her to be as close as she liked at the time.

Ceres Square Chiron:

There may be health issues with food, wheat, gluten, etc. Grief can also be an issue that needs to be resolved in your life. You are a natural caretaker, the challenge around this may be a large challenge for you but it is one you must conquer.

Chapter 2: Pallas

Pallas in Scorpio:

You leave nothing uncovered when you are interested in something. You use your logic and analyze the small details, and use your intuition for the missing pieces giving you the big picture. This gives you a strong psychic ability, especially to see what motivates others, and the psychology involved. You get to the bottom line of the situation. Pallas in Scorpio is interested in detective work, psychic realms, hypnosis, mind over matter, and can be very skilled in these areas. Healing with the mind is very natural to you.

Pallas in 11th house:

In the area of hopes, wishes and dreams, Pallas gives you the ability to plan and determination to see things come to fruition. You tend to join in groups or clubs related to hobbies, crafts, music, and intellectual groups. Your friends may be very intellectual and intuitive sharing their perceptions and strategies with you. You are very good at seeing the big picture in group dynamics, making you a great team leader, and assigning people to the correct task. Excellent position for a human resource manager.

Pallas Sextile Sun:

You have many talents and opportunities for success with this placement in your chart. You have a very intuitive edge as you perceive the big picture even with little details of the present. Those little clues add up to big intuition and visions of the future. You are a natural analyst and strategist. You have a lot of creative intelligence in you so that you can manifest what- ever your heart desires with strong conviction and commitment.

Pallas Square Venus:

You may feel as if there is a blockage in your creative potential in yourself. You may feel too intellectual and not artistic enough or the creative side is there with no thoughts on how to execute this into manifestation. The challenge is to integrate your planning and execution side with the creative and artistic side.

Pallas Square Saturn:

This is a challenging aspect you have within you. Challenges may be difficult as you see the big picture and how things should be or could be. The challenge is the current structure or society's rules are not in agreement with your vision. This can create frustration and a giving up attitude if you're constantly told no. Getting looked over at promotion time is a result of this, you will have to work extra hard to get your view and vision heard and seen into fruition. Don't let this discourage you as it is meant to help you see that you are just ahead of your time and you will get there, don't give up, you will succeed in the long run, it just won't be as easy as others have it. Limitations that lead to strength.

Pallas Conjunct Neptune:

You have strong intuition, and most likely are very psychic. This can manifest in other arenas such as music, art, and photography to name a few. You likely have very vivid dreams and are good at dream analysis. Psychology is also a good avenue for you as you see the bigger picture into a person's psyche. Detective work is also favored with this aspect, or at the least loving spy and intrigue movies and stories.

Chapter 3: Juno

Juno in Scorpio:

You are looking for a strong, magnetic and mysterious partner. You are looking for "till death do us part", type of relationship. You need complete emergence of the two of you in a relationship filled with passion. There is a strong sexual desire with Juno in Scorpio, sex is a must. Your partner will be a strong and silent type, but very deep and emotional.

Juno in 11th house:

You will be friends with your significant other, you may have started out that way or been introduced by friends. You may enjoy being with friends as a couple. When someone mentions your name, they automatically think of your partner as well. The two of you spend much time in public, and with groups of people.

Juno Square Venus:

There can be an element of jealousy in your relationship with your spouse. It may be that you both have different values and especially in what commitment means in a relationship. Each person or couple has different commitment needs and desires there is no right or wrong, it's just that both have to be in agreement on those issues. Make sure you both feel the same way about marriage before you enter into it. You both may have very different tastes in food, style, clothing or in the arts.

Juno Square Saturn:

With this placement your marriage will be delayed until after thirty possibly even later in life. You may choose not to marry. Your partner may have to be taken care of by you, whether incapacitated or some other debility, you will be the one "parenting" or responsible for your partner. This does not mean an unhappy marriage. You are likely to have this feeling that you must take care of your spouse, no matter what, as if it is karmic in nature.

Juno Conjunct Neptune:

You are very dreamy and idealistic about your marriage partner and marriage itself. Marriage may seem like a fairy tale to you. You need to be careful not to put your partner on a pedestal as a Super Man or Wonder Woman remember everyone has flaws and no one is perfect. You may attract a partner who has addiction or alcohol issues and you just need to be aware of what co-dependency is and what it means, so you don't become the co-dependent spouse that has no identity of their own. On another level you may be looking for a spouse who is very spiritual and a "soul" mate. You may very well attract the soul mate you are looking for with this aspect.

Juno Conjunct Pallas:

Your marriage partner will be strong, independent, and very much a strategist and planner. There will be a strong need of approval from your mate to make you feel connected. Politics, work, and career are good topics of like interests you both share. Creativity is honored and shared between the two of you. Your partner may be a lawyer, or at least very career oriented.

Chapter 4: Vesta

Vesta in Capricorn:

You are devoted to work, and achieving success and status. You take on heavy amounts of responsibility, and thrive best in an organized and structured environment. The government jobs are a good example, police, and military. You have long and strong endurance to get the tasks done and would make a great manager of others. Sexually this can be abstinence or the extreme opposite as Capricorn is often all or nothing.

Vesta in 1st house:

You're a very loyal, dutiful, and focused individual. You tend to be very serious and hard working toward anything you feel devoted to. Commitment is a strong word you live by. Perfection can be the goal with Vesta here.

Vesta Coniunct Mercurv:

You have a very strong mind that can focus on the minute details, and keep the concentration going for long periods of time. You can even seem obsessive to others as you don't lose your train of thought. You are good at keeping your word as you feel your word is your honor.

Vesta Trine Uranus:

You would do well to study shamanistic practices, and any new or innovative spiritual techniques. New Age beliefs appeal to you, especially around rituals, magic, astrology, and tantric practices. Science and technology are also good subjects for you to excel in. Trust in your intuition as it is very strong, it comes in the form of just knowing, and through meditation and ritual.

Chapter 5: Chiron

Chiron in Pisces:

You are keenly intuitive and very imaginative this leads you to a spiritual life. Your biggest concerns really are spiritual in nature, becoming a better person, healing those in need, and tuning yourself to the highest spiritual vibrations. You have interest in the law of attraction, creative visualizations, and will become the master and teacher of these subjects. This placement is good for shamans, reiki masters and psychics.

Chiron in 2nd house:

You may make your money through a healing modality, or as a teacher, mentor or astrologer. You value healing, and education and mentoring others, and leaving them an ideal to strive for in their lives. Spiritual values are important to you. You may have lessons to learn around the value of money, and this can be a major wound you need to heal. Many took a vow of poverty in previous lives, if this sounds like you, then it is time to renounce that vow and recommit to a vow of prosperity, as that is a highly spiritual vibration.

Chiron Opposition Uranus:

You may have difficulty with relationships until you realize that you just need your freedom. You don't like convention and alternative is a key word for you in this life, as you have an alternative to most everything. Structure is hard for you if it's too rigid you will rebel and break away. Therefore authority is something you feel challenged by. You may feel like a maverick and that is truly what you are. Once you come to terms with this your relationships both personal and impersonal will improve greatly.

Chiron Opposition Pluto:

Relationships may be in need of healing for you. You attract powerful individuals who try to dominate or control you, creating the deep need for you to heal your inner wounds. There may be power and control issues bouncing back and forth with your partner until you heal this deep seated condition from childhood. Read books on the law of attraction to help let go of the need to feel in control.
