INTRODUCTION: PROGRESSED CHART

Your Personality Profile is revealed by the imprints of the planets in your NATAL Chart. The NATAL REPORT is a projection of "Personality Potential" and can be compared to a "Blueprint" of a building that is being planned for construction. At different stages of development while the building is being built, certain additions, deletions and/or other changes may become desirable (or even necessary) and the original blueprint may be modified to accommodate those changes. And so it is with your personality as indicated by your NATAL Chart. During the "building" of your life, your personality is being developed, and the imprints of the personality blueprint are being modified and/or changed, both by your own choices and by circumstances beyond your control.

The progression of the planets as they continue their respective orbits into different signs and houses, and the aspects they form, are beyond our control. But we DO have some control over how we handle these new influences, and how we let them affect our personality. In order to deal with these influences, it certainly would help for us to know WHAT these influences are, and WHEN we will have to deal with them. The PROGRESSED REPORT provides that information: the WHAT, the WHEN, and (in some reports) the HOW.

Now, for the first time, we have a Progressed Report that not only tells us WHAT, WHEN, and HOW--it also tells us HOW LONG! It locates the signs, the aspects, and the house positions for each of the planets for any given year of your life and tells you how long they will remain in those positions. With each of the interpretations for these progressed planetary positions, we include a brief synopsis of the influences and imprints of its position in your Natal Chart for your comparison.

Many techniques for following the development of man from birth through life have been devised and studied by Astrologers since about the second or third century BC. The technique used in this Report is called "Secondary Progressions". This system uses the "Day for a Year" process which appears to have been practiced since Ptolemy and Copernicus, and was supported by the German mathematician Johannes Kepler (1571-1630). The system is implemented by choosing a specific birthday. We then count a day for each year of your life, and cast a chart for the "progressed birthday".

The Progressed chart is the first chart used in Predictive Astrology, for it provides a good preview and overview of what you can expect in the coming year. We feel that the Progressed chart provides the first step toward using Astrology for a better and more fully informed way of living life -- AS IT UNFOLDS.

When combined with information obtained from a "FORECAST REPORT", OR "TRANSIT REPORT", which interprets the aspects of the transiting planets (where the planets actually WILL be at any given time), we can get an extremely comprehensive body of predictive information for any "progressed year"--and beyond. Check with your personal Astrologer for information concerning these Reports.

YOUR PROGRESSED ASCENDANT

Like the Sun-sign, progressing the chart will change the sign on the cusp of the first house, your Ascendant. It will also bring influences of the new sign into play upon the personality in changing, modifying, and "blending" experiences. Each time a new sign "rises" on the first house, you may feel a little disoriented, especially during the first year or two. This is because different methods, or "styles" of operating in interpersonal and business transactions can vary considerably under the influence of different Rising signs. Since the Ascendant represents the face (the "Mask") we show the world, others may begin to see us in a different light before we become aware of any changes in ourselves.

Unlike the Sun's thirty-year cycle, the change cycles of the Ascendant may not be as predictable as the Sun, since the houses may have more, or less, than thirty degrees. Casting the chart for the place of residence instead of the birthplace can also affect the degree of the Ascendant. The exact time of changes from the birth chart Ascendant and from the progressed Rising-signs can be difficult to trace when changes of residence are extreme.

The Rising sign in the Progressed chart determines the signs on the houses, just as it does in the Natal chart. Each time the Ascendant changes, the sign on the cusps of the other eleven houses may change, also. The interpretations of the signs on the houses will give some clues regarding the affairs of each house during the year for which the Progressed chart is cast. These signs on the cusps may not change very much from year to year unless you move your place of residence a significant distance from one geographic location to another.

Your Progressed Ascendant is now at twenty-two degrees of the sign, Capricorn. The following interpretations are for the current year and place of residence.

PROGRESSED CAPRICORN RISING WITH NATAL ASCENDANT IN SCORPIO--Scorpio rising is the sign of extremes. Even the symbol for the sign is a combination of two extremes--the soaring eagle and the slithering serpent--and Scorpio Rising bestows the awesome power of both. Other people see you as a person who takes nothing lightly, and who has a tendency to see to the very depths of a situation. You appear to be extremely strong-willed and proud, but intensely private and not easy to know. Behind your quiet exterior others sense a great deal of sensitivity and emotional depth. When you want something you go after it rather quietly but determinedly--and you usually get it. This intensity of purpose can give you a drive which will help you to succeed in endeavors where almost anyone else would fail. Your main purpose in life is to rise above the baser instincts of your nature and to direct this awesome power and intensity into constructive channels. You are very intuitive about other people: especially about their unspoken feelings and hidden motives. Some could feel threatened by you. You may like someone immediately, or forever shut them out. This can work both ways as you can be extremely cautious of others until you get to know and trust them--and trust doesn't come easy with you. However, when you do commit yourself emotionally to someone, be it friend or lover, you are intensely loyal and devoted to them. You apply this same intensity to any cause you might espouse, sometimes too strongly.

When the Ascendant is in Capricorn in the PROGRESSED Chart, it can be one of the most responsible of all the rising signs, expressing the qualities of solidarity, security, caution, and reliability. You will want your life to count for something during this progression, but you may still have a tendency to procrastinate because of your strong perfectionist quality. You may have an unreasonable fear of failure, but you may feel the need for a different professional direction during this life cycle. Capricorn is known as the "Business sign", and you could start your own business during this progression. You have the "workaholic" tendency, and work best under pressure. You need to set realistic goals for yourself, learn to accept less than perfection, and work on your tendency to procrastinate. You could now have a little difficulty understanding why anyone would love you, and could set up constant tests for others to prove their affection for you. This could make fulfilling relationships difficult to maintain. You must learn to take care of yourself during this progression in a healthy emotional way by learning self love and acceptance. Loosen-up and lighten-up on yourself and make time for a little fun in your life. With Capricorn rising in the Progressed chart, it is never too late. Life seems to get better as you get older. You may have just held back until you are ready to fulfill your ultimate destiny.

PROGRESSED PISCES ON 2ND HOUSE--Pisces is ruled by Neptune, and when they are found progressed to the second house of money and finances, excessive generosity can cause carelessness in professional and money matters. However, this very generosity may bring financial good fortune. You could appreciate the good and the beautiful things in life without being excessively greedy for them during this progression.

PROGRESSED ARIES ON 3RD HOUSE--Aries is ruled by Mars, the action planet. On the third house of the thinking mind and communications, this sign can cause you to enjoy arguing just for argument's sake. You can be very aggressive and opinionated now concerning pet peeves or ideas. You may love to create rivalry between others and see where the chips fall. On the positive side, this position could enhance creativity in the expression and in the application of ideas.

PROGRESSED TAURUS ON 4TH HOUSE--Venus rules Taurus and when it is on the fourth house in the Progressed Chart, your home is likely to also reflect your instincts about providing for your family. You are likely to channel much of your financial resources toward this end. You will love beauty in your personal environment, and will enhance it all you can with music and art.

PROGRESSED GEMINI ON 5TH HOUSE--Mercury, planet of intellect and communications rules Gemini and when progressed to the fifth house of love, sex, and romance, it is not likely to be a passionate love position. Actually you can be critical of loved ones, but if you do have children they are likely to have outstanding intellectual ability. Companions you choose during this time are also likely to be intellectuals.

PROGRESSED GEMINI ON 6TH HOUSE--Gemini is ruled by Mercury and Mercury is also ruler of the sixth house. When this sign is progressed to the cusp of this sixth house of work, service, and health, they can provide the intellectual approach to the matters of the house. You are versatile and ingenious now in organizing your work, and can handle several jobs at once. You have many good ideas on how to increase efficiency, and a fraternal attitude toward co-workers and employees gives you great management ability during this progression.

PROGRESSED CANCER ON 7TH HOUSE--The Moon rules progressed Cancer on this seventh house of marriage, relationships, and other partnerships. You are probably strongly attached emotionally to your spouse and/or partners. However, partners are likely to be emotionally dependent upon you, which can sometimes be burdensome. You can also be emotional about public relations and dear friends during this time.

PROGRESSED VIRGO ON 8TH HOUSE--Virgo is also ruled by Mercury. When progressed to the eighth house of primal instincts and others' resources, family income is likely to include contributions from partners and/or spouse. You are aware of death and health matters, so you probably are very insurance minded during this time. You could be encouraged to get everything in order, down to the last detail during this progression. You need to be alert now for accidents and the unexpected.

PROGRESSED LIBRA ON 9TH HOUSE--Venus rules Libra. With this sign progressed to the ninth house of the higher mind, your ideas about religion and philosophy will border on the beautiful and the harmonious. You are likely to be attracted to the traditional only if there is ritual and song. You will feel the need to get the philosophical areas of your life in balance during this time. There will be strong influences now to seek for justice and fair play. You will like to travel for pleasure, which could include with, or to, partners and good friends.

PROGRESSED SCORPIO ON 10TH HOUSE--Scorpio is ruled by Pluto. When it is on the tenth house of career, honor, profession, and vocation in the Progressed chart, it can provide an intensely passionate drive for success. You are likely to be recognized for your profession. You may buck the establishment during this time, and go your own way. There could be a tendency to make your profession your identity and to use it to regenerate the self. Since Pluto is also the planet of regeneration, you could be interested in careers that involve healing of mankind. You also might become involved with environmental issues regarding regeneration of the earth.

PROGRESSED SAGITTARIUS ON 11TH HOUSE--Jupiter, planet of expansion and luck, rules Sagittarius. This house position in the Progressed Chart indicates many optimistic and outstanding friends who could inspire you to greater accomplishments. Some of your most idealistic dreams could be realized now. You are likely to join organizations which give you the opportunity to expand personally during this progression.

PROGRESSED SAGITTARIUS ON 12TH HOUSE--You are philosophically oriented when this sign is found on the twelfth house of the Progressed chart, especially when alone. Much of that philosophy comes from hidden support which guides and inspires your thinking. You need to beware of aspiring to lofty ideals which you can not live up to. You need to practice grounding your idealism into reality during this progression.

PROGRESSED SUN IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

The Sun moves forward (counter-clockwise) in the Progressed chart from its Natal position at the approximate rate of one degree for each year of life. This means that the Sun will progress into a different sign by, or before, age thirty. Remember that these Natal Sun-sign influences are with us all our lives in the form of birth imprints. In the Progressed chart, the new Sun-sign will influence, enhance, modify, and/or blend with those in the Natal chart--and so with any subsequent progressed Sun-signs. The influences may be most recognizable during the first year for which a Progressed chart has been cast after the Sun has moved into the next sign. Sometimes there can be events or situations which trigger significant life changes (relocation, graduation, job change, marriage, divorce, new home, etc.). Some of these could vividly high-light the influences of the Sun entering into a different sign.

As you read this report, look back over your life and try to remember if there were any events that could have changed your directions or goals when the Sun entered a new sign. You can count back to 00 degrees from the Sun-Sign degree of this chart to find the year, letting each degree count as one year. Allow about three years on either side of that actual date.

At the end of the thirty years that each new Sun-sign remains in the Progressed charts, the personality will have somewhat absorbed and assimilated the influences of all of these Sun-sign positions--and so with the new progressions to come. As in all Astrology, you have, and have had, free will to make choices. Those choices can be very significant in determining how much effect the Progressed Sun positions have in modifying your Personality Profile. Transiting planetary aspects to the Sun can also help you anticipate new influences and enhance the sense of timing. Hopefully, you will be able to make better life choices based upon an expanded base of information through astrology.

Your Progressed Sun is now in the fifteenth year of a 30-year cycle in the sign, Capricorn. You have about 16 years left in this life-cycle.

PROGRESSED SUN IN CAPRICORN WITH NATAL SUN IN SCORPIO--Your NATAL Sun in Scorpio provides you with power, a strong will, and intense emotional desires. Your life is likely to be a constant struggle to conquer desire through creative use of the will. In all your endeavors, it is important that you embark upon the proper course from the start, since you will act with all your power. Your perfectionism makes it difficult for you to delegate responsibility, consequently you tend to overwork in order to achieve perfection in all details. Whatever you do, you do it with concentration and enthusiasm. You are extremely strong-willed and tenacious in pursuing your objectives. Fierce pride, courage, and emotional strength are yours in abundance. You tend to be more of a cynic than an idealist. You are secretive, and will demand ultimate loyalty from those in whom you may choose to confide. Your drive for material possessions may change later in life to a more philanthropic attitude, and a spiritual search may turn your philosophy of life completely around.

The Sagittarius progression of the Sun will have added some idealism and somewhat moderated the selfish drive to the ambition that was provided by your NATAL Scorpio Sun.

The PROGRESSED Capricorn Sun brings some determination and cool assessment to the ambitious drive for success. Capricorn is known as the "business sign" and it is quite possible that you will go into business for yourself during this progression--or that you will make significant progress toward your goals through activities in the business world. The combined influences of these three signs provide some extremely powerful indications for success in anything that may be attempted. You are extremely focused and realistic in all endeavors, and determination will play a big part in achieving your goals. You will understand your difficulties and will maintain total efforts to overcome any obstacles that get in your way. You will make every effort to provide for your later years, as one of your greatest fears would be to become a burden on others and unable to provide for yourself. You will not show much emotionalism during this progression, and personal relationships may suffer as a result. You are really not all that cool inside, but you have difficulty showing warmth. You need to develop consideration for others, and try to learn to reveal your true feelings.

PROGRESSED SUN IN 12TH HOUSE--The Sun "passes through" each house one time each year. Its influence "illuminates" and brings into focus the affairs of the house in which it dwells (or is passing through). In the PROGRESSED Chart, we fix that focus on the house occupied by the Sun on your birthday anniversary for the year the chart is cast. In the twelfth house, your will may be directed inward, exploring the resources of your own subconscious. Because of this, you can be lonely and withdrawn. Psychology and psychic research are likely to interest you now, and you may find your best self-expression through working in psychiatric hospitals or places established for mental or spiritual retreats. Service to others can provide you with recognition and fulfillment. You need to reach out to people with common interests for spiritual growth, and to avoid hermitage instincts.

PROGRESSED MOON IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

The close proximity of the Moon to the earth and its rotation around the earth causes it to pass between the earth and each sign of the Zodiac quite rapidly. It averages about thirteen degrees per day--a little less than three days per sign. Under the day-for-a-year progression system, it will take approximately thirty months, two-and-a-half years, for it to complete each life-cycle of the Moon.

The Moon is the only "planet" that could show up more than once in a Progressed chart in the same sign in which it was found in the Natal chart. Although these natal influences "imprint" our personalities and are with us throughout our lifetime, when the Moon appears in the same sign in the Progressed chart, it can give us an opportunity to modify even those natal imprints to some extent. In the delineations for the Progressed Moon-signs, we will include the Natal Moon-sign interpretations.

In mythology the Moon is always female--as the Sun is always male. In most ancient cults and religions, the Moon represents the female force which reflects the male force of the Sun. There were many ancient Lunar holidays and festivals. In modern religion, the date for the Easter holiday is still determined by the Moon's orbit.

In astrology, "she" dispenses her influences indiscriminately upon male and female alike, though each sex is likely to respond to the influences in somewhat different ways. The Moon-sign influences in the Progressed chart will affect the emotional side of your personality as it was imprinted by the sign the Moon was in at birth and modified by subsequent progressed Moon-sign influences. The intensity of the changes can range from deeply sub-conscious to dramatically emotional.

Your Progressed Moon is now at 11 degrees of an approximate two-and-a-half-year life cycle in the sign, Scorpio. You should have, roughly, 20 months left until it moves into the next Moon-sign cycle.

PROGRESSED MOON IN SCORPIO WITH NATAL MOON IN PISCES--The NATAL Moon in Pisces indicates a supersensitive nature which acts like a psychic sponge, soaking up the thoughts and emotions of others. You are likely to be disproportionately kind and sympathetic, but you are easily hurt and could be excessively shy. You need to seek true spiritual guidance to channel the dominance of your subconscious mind. Traditional and simple prayer and meditation is probably the best way to begin such a search. You are much more ambitious than the combination of this caring, psychic sign and this caring and emotional planet would indicate. You may be attracted to helping careers, and you are likely to receive honors and recognition in whatever profession or career you ultimately choose. Personal relationships will be intense, whether they are good or not-so-good. You like your home, and whether home-bound or not, it will be a safe haven and a base for all your activities. You love to make love and can be quite creative and inimitable in its expression--as well as thoroughly enjoying the romantic and the traditional. You like to give and to get cards and small gifts, and can cry over nostalgia and soap opera. You could also be a little jealous, and a failed relationship will be extremely painful. You could blame yourself to the extreme and feel you are a failure in love. This could make you feel so vulnerable that you would withdraw into seclusion to protect yourself emotionally. If this should happen, you need to avoid alcohol and other drugs, get out and about, meet new people, and get your life jump-started into more positive directions again.

When the Moon is in Scorpio in the PROGRESSED Chart, it will bring strong, biased emotions, based on willful desire. The personal ambition will be increased, and you will be extremely self-directed during this life cycle. Relationships may be difficult because you will want to dominate them. You are much tuned to what others are thinking. You are perfectly willing to lend a helping hand, but you will expect results and for the people you help to begin helping themselves. The inclination toward brooding and revenge is a serious character defect usually present in persons during this period, and you need to avoid allowing yourself to harbor these feelings. This is not an easy sign to live with, but when self is conquered you can find that no sacrifice is too great to achieve a worthwhile objective. Selfish desires, stubbornness, and the wish to control can be turned into a positive drive to accomplish good deeds. This is a good time to rise above the base desire nature and let the Scorpio "Eagle" soar above the "Scorpion" of the sign.

PROGRESSED MOON IN 9TH HOUSE--The Moon will pass through all the houses of the Natal Chart approximately every twenty-eight days, making its daily and hourly influences very fleeting. When it is in the ninth house of the Progressed Chart however, it might bring extended travel, legal experiences, or philosophical and religious development--or, perhaps, just mental expansion in these matters. It is a good time to expand your knowledge about metaphysical and spiritual influences.

PROGRESSED SUN-MOON SIGN COMBINATION

As in the Natal Chart, the blend of the Progressed Sun-Moon influences are extremely significant toward understanding the modification of the personality from that which was indicated by the Natal Chart. We urge you to review the interpretation in your Natal Chart. The interpretation of the Progressed Sun-Moon blend is printed next. Study it carefully, in addition to the delineations of Sun in Sign, Sun in House, Moon in Sign, and Moon in House. We suggest that you compare them also with the same interpretations in your Natal Chart.

PROGRESSED: CAPRICORN SUN AND SCORPIO MOON--These two signs are in sextile and the Moon is in its "Fall". This provides a tremendous inner drive and temperament when they are found in the Progressed chart. You may hold back on many bold opinions because of natural reserve, and there is a tendency to be very secretive in all personal matters now. You can learn compromise, but you will be very fixed in your core opinions. Growth will help the Self to realize that strategic power can be gained during this life cycle by learning to bend to accommodate others. You have great strength of character and are loyal, dependable, and kind. You hate to show your emotions, and will never let them get in the way of your reasoning. You will have no time for fools. You are likely to have a very clear idea of what you want out of life now, and are perfectly willing to develop the resources to get it.

PROGRESSED MERCURY IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

Mercury in the signs gives clues to the kinds of concerns that occupy your mind and reveals your psychological approach to making decisions and conveying your ideas to others. Mercury influences the kind of communications you have with other people throughout the year: those received as well as those you send. It indicates shifts in mental focus and intellectual attention as they are impacted by the influences of the Progressed sign. It can also indicate travel, such as short trips which don't upset the daily routine too much. You can usually count on not being bored by Mercury influences, and the daily routine is more likely to be intensified rather than subdued. On another level, Mercury IS the every day routine, indicating everything we are so accustomed to that we don't even notice it. On still another level, it may indicate a time when you should just sit and think.

Mercury takes a little less than thirty years to progress through the thirty degrees of each sign, so we may have a little "stretch" or a little "overlap" of influences when using the day-for-a-year progression system. We have tried to adjust the degree of Mercury in its current Progressed sign to give you some rough idea of how long it will be until it enters the next Progressed sign.

Your Progressed Mercury is now in the 16th degree of an approximate thirty-year life-cycle in the sign, Capricorn. You could have, roughly, 15 years left in this cycle.

PROGRESSED MERCURY IN CAPRICORN WITH NATAL MERCURY IN SCORPIO--When Mercury is in Scorpio in the NATAL Chart, it gives you an intuitive mind capable of profound insights. You see things accurately, but not necessarily charitably. If you cannot express yourself openly, you will remain silent. You have much resourcefulness and a great determination of mind, and you can surmount obstacles that many would not attempt. You have good mental concentration and the ability to become completely immersed in your work. You seem to know things at an instinctive, nonverbal level and you prefer learning through direct experience or apprenticeship rather than through books or lectures. You have mechanical ability and can work well with your hands. You also have an instinctive rapport with animals, and may feel that you relate better to them than you do to people. You tend to become narrowly focused upon your own specialized interests and may not have much to say or communicate outside that field. Because of these self-directed interests, personal relationships may be difficult. You need to work on understanding and trusting other people, and on accepting others for who they are and where they are. Above all, learn to allow yourself to be "only human", also.

Before Mercury progressed to Sagittarius, Mercury moved into Sagittarius in the progressed chart, and the Scorpio focus on self would have been somewhat moderated, and idealism and concern for the universal community would have evolved. Goals and ambition would have included more concern for the good of humanity.

When Mercury moved into Capricorn in your PROGRESSED Chart, your ambition and idealism would have been firmed up and the energies would become more practical. Capricorn is often referred to as the "Business sign", so this progression can be a very productive thirty-year life cycle for you. Combining the positive influences from these three signs will provide enormous power potential for success and goal achievement. You will be disciplined in your thinking, and have an aptitude for organization and administration. You are also a good strategist, and will plan and patiently follow a realistic course which could lead to phenomenal success--probably in business for yourself. You will be unimpressed by exaggerated claims or promises. You will insist upon being shown facts to back up any statement you hear, and your natural skepticism often borders on cynicism. You will approach problems clearly and rationally and maintain your poise and objectivity even in the midst of critical situations. You need and will enjoy quiet times alone for thinking or reading. All types of personal relationships will be difficult during this progression, for you will seem to be cooler and less caring than you really are. You also need to learn to lighten up on the demands you put upon yourself, as well on the demands and the expectations you can put upon others.

PROGRESSED MERCURY IN 12TH HOUSE--Mercury in the houses deals with the practical affairs that occupy your mind, and shows what areas of activity will be influenced by your thoughts and communications. In the twelfth house of the Progressed chart, it indicates your thinking is strongly influenced by unconscious memories and past experiences. You may have a tendency to make decisions based on feelings, since many impressions filter up from the subconscious during this time. You are likely to be secretive about your inner thoughts, and may be shy about saying what you really think. You may gain much knowledge from intuition or psychic ability. Avoid fixating now upon past experiences not relevant to the present, lest it lead to neurotic tendencies.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

Venus in the signs indicates how you express your emotions in personal relationships. It also influences your attitudes toward money, personal possessions, creature comforts, and social and aesthetic values. Venus is a social planet, usually bringing people together for parties and good times. It is also the planet of LOVE, and its impressions combined with the influences of the signs can tell you quite a bit about your experiences in love and romance. It is also the planet of creativity: of artistic talent and entertainment. The influences of the different signs of the Zodiac can help to dictate the forms of expression indicated to display these talents.

The annual orbit of Venus is usually only five or six days away from the orbiting time of the Sun, so it fits the day-for-a-year progression system quite well. Though there may be a very little stretch or overlap, we are pretty safe in estimating a degree of progression per year for Venus, as with the Sun.

Your Progressed Venus is now in the 15th degree of an approximate thirty year life-cycle in the sign, Aquarius. You have, roughly, 16 years left in this cycle.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN AQUARIUS WITH NATAL VENUS IN SCORPIO--
When Venus is in Scorpio in your NATAL Chart, the emotions and sexual desires can be strong and passionate, jealous and secretive, with much pride in sex and romance. You can take your romances too personally and too seriously, but you give much in emotional expression and expect much in return. Your artistic tastes are likely to turn to the dramatic and sensational. You are highly sensitive to others, and may be psychic. You will keep your personal pride and emotional dignity against all odds, sometimes appearing cold and remote. You need to watch out for tendencies to control others in close personal relationships. In love and romance, you want a deep, intense, passionate union with your loved one, and you will form very strong emotional bonds and attachments. You "marry" the person you love at a very deep emotional level, and could often be extremely possessive and jealous of any threat to that union. If you are ever betrayed, you are capable of hating with as much force and intensity as you once loved. You are not very forgiving, and your motto is more likely to get even.

The Sagittarius progression of Venus will restore some idealism and spiritual principles into relationships. Venus in the Capricorn life cycle will have returned some stability to relationships but perhaps cooled them down a little, also.

When Venus is in Aquarius in the PROGRESSED Chart, it brings an impersonal but friendly emotional outlook--you want to be friendly with everyone, but not necessarily on a personal level. Intellectual stimulation is important in romance and marriage, and you may be attracted to ingenious or eccentric types.

Romantic attractions may often be sudden and casual, but not necessarily stable and lasting. You will be open and unconventional in your attitude towards love, sex, and romance. You will enjoy socializing, bringing people together, and you will have many friends of both sexes. You will value friendship very highly and will, in fact, be more comfortable being a friend than being a lover. You may seek an intellectual rapport or spiritual bond with your love partner, but deep intimacy and emotional bonding do not come easily to you. You abhor jealousy and possessiveness, for you feel that no person truly "belongs" to another. You will appreciate a love partner who allows you plenty of freedom, and who is not too emotionally demanding. Beware of the potential for sudden and radical changes in your emotional outlook during this life cycle. You may have a hidden desire for greater emotional freedom for yourself and, at the same time, harbor stubborn attitudes toward emotional freedom for others.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN 1ST HOUSE--Venus in the houses gives us information about how you may express yourself socially, romantically, and artistically in the various areas of your life. In the first house of the Progressed chart, it influences you to be socially outgoing, with a pleasing manner and friendly appearance. It could bring out a striking physical beauty as well. You should generally have a happy outlook on life, and your natural ability to mix well with other people should contribute to both good business and exciting romantic opportunities during this time. Artistic talent is also indicated.

PROGRESSED MARS IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

Mars is energy and action. "His" influences provide means of expression for the influences of the other planets through direct action. It can express temperament, set fire to the emotions, activate ambition, spur romance on, and sometimes set the stage for accidents. In mythology, Mars is the God of War.

It takes Mars an average of about twenty-two months to progress into a new sign, depending upon Retrograde movement, etc. Therefore it will be difficult to establish an accurate time frame for the duration of the Progressed Mars influences. We use two years as an approximation, but the length of time left in each sign cannot be very accurate. However, each time you have a Progressed chart cast, the position of Mars for that year will be accurate.

Mars is now at 08 degrees of the sign, Virgo. It takes approximately 60 years for Mars to pass through one sign in the Progressed chart. You have, roughly, 46 years left until it moves into the next Mars life-cycle.

PROGRESSED MARS IN VIRGO WITH NATAL MARS IN LEO--Mars in Leo in the NATAL Chart makes the personality feel free, fearless, independent, enterprising, honest, and very conscientious. You are capable of rising to positions of responsibility, trust, authority, and control. Your ambition is likely to take you into public service where you certainly can become a leader. You are also likely to have some musical talent. You are warm-hearted and sociable; ardent in affection, love, and pleasure, but often hasty and impulsive in love and too unrestrained in the emotions and passions.

When Mars moves into Virgo in the PROGRESSED Chart, it provides the personality with much originality in thought and an interest in scientific enterprises. During this progression, there could be difficulties in the way of career. You should plan your actions carefully and execute them systematically, going your own way quietly. You could be attracted to the healing arts during this time, and you may inquire into one of the healing professions. You are quick-witted and can be shrewd and acquisitive, but you need to be especially tactful and discriminative during this life cycle. You also need to beware of overwork, and of tendencies to be irritable, proud, and obstinate.

PROGRESSED MARS IN 7TH HOUSE--Mars in the houses indicates the areas of life in which you express your actions and desires, and where you need to use energy and initiative in order to get results. Seventh house position indicates aggressive partnership activities and/or working with the public. Influences from this house in the Progressed chart can cause tension in your life, especially with spouses and partners. It is difficult for you to accept compromises and cooperation in these relationships now. On the positive side, confrontation can bring out true feelings, and efforts should be made to clear the air. Apply energy to working through relationships during this progression. Avoid unnecessary conflicts with others. If you must have them, be sure they are worth fighting about.

PLANETARY SIGN AND HOUSE POSITIONS:

The rest of the planets take much longer to orbit through the signs and houses. Unless they were in the last few degrees of the Natal sign, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto are probably still in the signs and houses they were in when you were born. If any of them have progressed into the next sign, the program will print the influences of the new sign as it compares to the old. It will only interpret the progressed house position. A major move in geographic location which changes the Ascendant may also change the house cusps and the signs on the houses.

PROGRESSED JUPITER IN SAGITTARIUS WITH NATAL JUPITER IN SAGITTARIUS--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long-term.

Jupiter in the signs influences your ethical, religious, and philosophical standards and beliefs, and how you may express these interests. In Sagittarius in the NATAL Chart, Jupiter imprints the personality with a love of philosophy, religion, education, travel, and foreign cultures. It bestows tendencies to good fortune and general success. You are likely to have far-reaching metaphysical thoughts, seeking that ultimate Creative Force by which to guide your life. You are likely to receive recognition for study in the psychic and occult, and may have prophetic insights into the future. Avoid narrow-minded views, and pressure upon others to conform to your ideas. Seek positive directions through prayer and meditation.

PROGRESSED JUPITER IN 11TH HOUSE--Jupiter in the houses indicates the departments of life and the types of activity through which you express your religious, philosophical, and educational ideas. When progressed into the eleventh house, your hopes, ideals and wishes for the future play an important role in your life. You may be more idealistic than usual and you will want to improve the world around you in every way you can. Friends will be very significant during this time, and you may become involved in group activities. This could focus on self-improvement, rather than global, but either way this is not a time when you should go it alone. Friends, both old and new, will support your changes, and will also benefit themselves. Whatever you put out will come back in an even greater quantity.

PROGRESSED SATURN IN LEO WITH NATAL SATURN IN LEO--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long-term.

Saturn in the signs indicates the areas in which you must accept responsibility and the ways in which you must practice discipline and develop maturity. In the sign Leo in the NATAL Chart, these imprints on the personality are likely to be distorted by egotism and your desire for power. You have a compulsive drive for personal control and a great need for recognition and self-importance. You will need to practice all the discipline Saturn can bestow in order to develop a proper set of values in dealing with love, romance, children, and self-expression. In your profession, you will probably attain positions of power and leadership. Be satisfied with that, and remember, there is a Power greater than ourselves.

PROGRESSED SATURN IN 7TH HOUSE--Saturn in the houses indicates the areas of life in which we must learn to act with discipline and to express practical ambition through maturity. In the seventh house of the Progressed Chart, it gives you a strong sense of responsibility and justice in relationships and public affairs. During this period you will work hard and conscientiously with others. Partners, life companions, or spouses found during this time are likely to be much older or much younger than you, the older providing much stability to the relationship. You are reliable now in work, you honor your contracts, you may be interested in law, and you will have business organizational ability. Avoid allowing yourself to become inhibited, negative, and critical during this progression. Seek positive spiritual guidance and avoid alcohol and other drugs.

PROGRESSED URANUS IN GEMINI WITH NATAL URANUS IN GEMINI--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

Uranus in the signs indicates the ways in which you express your urge for freedom and individuality, and how you establish your link with the Universal Mind. In Gemini in the NATAL Chart, Uranus imprints the personality with brilliant, original, intuitive minds. You may find it difficult to follow an idea through to completion because of extreme mental restlessness. You need mental freedom for new ways of thinking. You also need to exert self-discipline and concentration. You are likely to break with habitual living patterns, maybe often, but you need to practice acceptance of other's ways of living.

PROGRESSED URANUS IN 5TH HOUSE--Uranus in the houses indicates the types of activities through which you express your urge toward freedom and individuality. In the fifth house of the Progressed Chart, the focus is on sex and romance. You are likely to be unconventional in your sexual ideas and could have some rather sudden and unusual romantic involvements. You can be secretive and impulsive in your love affairs, but still vulnerable to scandal during this time. Your individuality can be positively expressed through the arts, and this could provide ways for you to sublimate your sexual urges. You may also simply withdraw from people now, for every encounter produces challenges. However, this could include avoiding the people who could be right for you, and you could be avoiding experiences that are necessary to your development at this time. The key is to be "cautiously" open and trusting.

PROGRESSED NEPTUNE IN LIBRA WITH NATAL NEPTUNE IN LIBRA--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

LAST TIME IN LIBRA IN 1957-NEXT POSSIBLE IN YEAR 2120--Neptune in the signs manifests more historical and generational influences than personal. In Libra in the NATAL Chart, it indicates the kind of cultural expression shown by the imaginative and creative faculties. In your personal responses, this position bestows you with an intuitive awareness of social relationships, and the concept of mutual social responsibilities. You will try for justice and fair play in all areas of your life. You may have a desire to challenge the establishment, such as the institution of marriage. You are likely to have an interest in new art forms. On the negative side, the stage is set for a desire for escapism through the abuse of alcohol and drugs.

PROGRESSED NEPTUNE IN 8TH HOUSE--Neptune in the houses indicates the ways in which you may express your mystical potential--your ability to visualize. The eighth house position in the Progressed Chart focuses on your psychic tendencies, your interest in the occult, and enhances the potential for clairvoyance. Be warned against attempts to manipulate occult forces for personal materialistic gain during this time. Seek positive spiritual guidance to determine the best ways in which to apply your spiritual gifts for the good of you and others. An old order of your life is beginning to pass away now, and a new one is coming into existence. This is slow and subtle, but necessary. You may not notice it until much later. You could become more conscious of death because of the death of a friend or acquaintance.

PROGRESSED PLUTO IN LEO WITH NATAL PLUTO IN LEO--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

1939-1957 NEXT POSSIBLE, YEAR 2205--Pluto is also generational, and the personal influences are political. In Leo in both the NATAL and the PROGRESSED Charts, the influences are toward leadership. You could attain a leadership position in some area of your life interest during this life cycle. The struggle may be great to achieve personal fulfillment, but the results will be worth it. This is also a time to watch your health and the natural needs of your body. Avoid undue stress and get proper rest. Avoid alcohol and other drugs, for you are likely to be at risk for addiction. If Pluto is in this position in your Progressed Chart, these influences will be with you throughout the rest of your life,

PROGRESSED PLUTO IN 7TH HOUSE--The house position of Pluto shows in which departments of life you need to exercise conscious creative willpower to regenerate your self and (possibly) your surroundings. Progressed into the seventh, it could indicate drastic changes through marriage, partnerships, and dealings with others. You are likely to attract a partner who is strong-willed and domineering. You should avoid such partnerships, for you most surely would rebel later. You may have deep insight into the thoughts of others, and need to seek spiritual guidance for appropriate uses of this gift. You need to learn a balance between responsibility and initiative during this progression.

PROGRESSED PLANETARY ASPECTS:

Following are the interpretations of the Planetary Aspects of the Progressed planets to each other. As in the Natal chart we use only the major aspects: Conjunction, Opposition, Square, Trine, and Sextile. These interpretations may be a little different from the Natal Chart interpretations in describing the influences, as they are presented from the same point of view as transiting planetary aspects. Rather than natal imprints, these aspects represent influences you have to deal with during the time of this Progressed chart. Some of the slower moving planets with aspects in the Natal Chart may still be in orb. However the program allows less than one degree of orb, so that the influences will be strongly focused on the year for which the Progressed Report is prepared.

Because of this narrow focus and the tight orb, there are not likely to be very many aspects (if any) in this Report.

The following progressed Moon to progressed planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 4 months in the future, that is about 4 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED SUN SEXTILE THE MOON--This aspect indicates a time when the different aspects of your personality are in tune with each other. Life will not seem so difficult. When in the Progressed Chart the aspect indicates a good time for associating with friends and neighbors, for they will be at ease with you. Your relations with the opposite sex will be smoother than usual, and relationships should be comfortable now. It is a good time to work on your personal and emotional life and smooth out any difficulties and uncomfortable situations that might exist. If you don't deal with them now, they could be more difficult later on.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE VENUS--This aspect in the Progressed Chart can bring concerns about finances and the standard of living (aesthetics) into sharp awareness. Personality and emotions are heightened, making judgments take on an emotional direction during this progression. Beware of the tendency for criticism in emotional relationships. Cultivate patience and practice serenity.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE PLUTO--Experiences occur during the progressed Moon's aspects with Pluto to highlight the individual's position within society. Personal perspectives are challenged with the square aspect in relation to social organizations, professional institutions, political alignment, and the Self's world-concept. On the personal level, permanent regeneration and emotional changes could begin during this progression.

PROGRESSED MOON SEXTILE MERCURY--This aspect between the planet of emotions and the planet of intellect in the Progressed Chart can give you a good memory and a good working relationship between your conscious and your subconscious mind. You are likely to be a good conversationalist because you are truly interested in whomever you are communicating with. You can emotionally and logically understand and communicate the ordinary, daily life affairs now, and you probably have a good business sense. This is a rare supportive aspect.

The following progressed Moon to progressed planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about a year in the future, that is about a year after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON OPPOSITE THE NORTH NODE--This aspect in the Natal Chart can indicate difficulty from bad timing--it seems that you are never in the right place at the right time. In the Progressed Chart, it causes you to have to draw upon your own resources all of the time because you cannot count upon the cooperation of others. The bright side of this aspect is that your ingenuity in making the best of bad situations gives you the capability for disciplined, well-planned, and concentrated effort. It builds strength of character, and you become accustomed to meeting adversity with courage and determination.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE SATURN--This aspect in the Progressed Chart indicates emotional difficulties with career development. Re-assessment and re-alignment are both indicated, with possible need for expansion. This aspect requires action toward developmental maturation. Ambition is heightened and advancement is necessary during this time, but your emotions could tend to affect your judgment.

PROGRESSED VENUS OPPOSITE PLUTO--This aspect deals with relationships, and intensifies the energy and the affects of the experiences involved. It could lead to indiscretions that could cause problems later on. A new relationship could be impulsive in nature, and infatuation may prevent you from proper evaluation of the consequences. Caution and awareness is recommended until you can get a feel for where the relationship could go. There could be obscure conflicts in existing relationships, causing some difficulties. Subconscious impulses may cause you to behave irrationally, and you need to beware of manipulative tendencies in yourself. There are powerful energies at work here, and you need to be able to deal with root causes. Handled properly, this aspect can be a powerful force for good.

PROGRESSED TO NATAL ASPECTS

The Natal Chart is always significant in our lives, and it must be taken into consideration when interpreting any of the advanced charting efforts. The Progressed chart has moved the planets into new positions, sometimes forming new aspects with the fixed positions of your natal planets. Some of the aspects in the Natal chart of the slower moving (outer) planets may still be in aspect orb in the Progressed Chart. These aspects, and any new ones formed, will help to bridge the gap between the Natal and Progressed Charts. Because the program allows less than one degree of orb in order to focus the influences for the year the Progressed Report is prepared, there are not likely to be many planets in aspect--if any. If there are any aspects in orb, their interpretations will provide valuable information about influences you will feel during the duration of this Progressed year.

The following progressed Moon to natal planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 4 months in the future, that is about 4 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE NATAL MARS--This aspect provides developmental tensions to the personality. While it is in the Progressed Chart, experiences may project energies into impulsive reactions. It can indicate a time of potential disruption to growth and harmony because of intense emotional energy. Resolutions of problems and removal of obstacles should be approached with careful planning and timing now. Try to avoid impulsiveness and confrontation.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE NATAL PLUTO--Experiences occur during the progressed Moon's aspects with Pluto to highlight the individual's position within society. Personal perspectives are challenged with the square aspect in relation to social organizations, professional institutions, political alignment, and the Self's world-concept. On the personal level, permanent regeneration and emotional changes could begin during this progression.

The following progressed Moon to natal planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 6 months in the future, that is about 6 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON CONJUNCT NATAL VENUS--This aspect bestows intense artistic ability, giving you a highly emotional response to beauty and harmony. While it is in the Progressed Chart, it will enhance your taste in clothing and food. You appreciate a beautiful environment and will create that for yourself. You have charm when dealing with others, and you are likely to find much success in romance during this time. You need to watch for a tendency to be self-indulgent, and beware that others can take advantage of you through your extreme sensitivity to their feelings now.

The following progressed Moon to natal planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about a year in the future, that is about a year after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE THE NATAL MOON--This is a good time to meet with old friends, awaken old memories, revisit past situations, deepen family relationships and improve your domestic environment.

PROGRESSED MOON CONJUNCT NATAL MERCURY--This aspect stimulates activity, movement, adaptation, and communication. It helps you to experience all these with much versatility when it is in the Progressed Chart. Emotion is added to the communications, and cooperation from others is assured. It indicates a good time for a significant life-change.

PROGRESSIONED MOON OPPOSITE THE NATAL NORTH NODE--This aspect in the Natal Chart can indicate difficulty from bad timing--it seems that you are never in the right place at the right time. In the Progressed Chart, it causes you to have to draw upon your own resources all of the time because you cannot count upon the cooperation of others. The bright side of this aspect is that your ingenuity in making the best of bad situations gives you the capability for disciplined, well-planned, and concentrated effort. It builds strength of character, and you become accustomed to meeting adversity with courage and determination.

PROGRESSIONED MOON SQUARE NATAL SATURN--This aspect in the Progressed Chart indicates emotional difficulties with career development. Re-assessment and re-alignment are both indicated, with possible need for expansion. This aspect requires action toward developmental maturation. Ambition is heightened and advancement is necessary during this time, but your emotions could tend to affect your judgment.

PROGRESSIONED MERCURY SEXTILE NATAL VENUS--This is a light aspect in the Progressed Chart, whose greatest value is putting you in touch with your feelings of love and friendship. It could be easy to tell someone you love them. Your appreciation of beauty is great and it is a good time for appreciating lovely things that have no purpose except to be what they are. You will be encouraged to use your mind for pursuing leisure activities during this progression.

PROGRESSIONED VENUS OPPOSITE NATAL MARS--Venus, planet of creativity opposite Mars, planet of direct action, can cause strong emotional relationship problems, especially where sexuality is involved. While this aspect is in the Progressed Chart, females can be at risk for some type of sexual misuse or abuse, and males are likely to use the opposite sex for gratification without regard for the feelings involved. There can be sexual incompatibility with spouse, since the principles of desire and attraction are confused during this time. You are likely to be easily hurt by unkindness from others. There can also be conflict over finances with spouse or partner. The lesson here is awareness and concern for others. Seek to sublimate sexuality into the spiritual realm and seek understanding and moderation in direct action.

PROGRESSIONED VENUS OPPOSITE NATAL PLUTO--This aspect deals with relationships, and intensifies the energy and the affects of the experiences involved. It could lead to indiscretions that could cause problems later on. A new relationship could be impulsive in nature, and infatuation may prevent you from proper evaluation of the consequences. Caution and awareness is recommended until you can get a feel for where the relationship could go. There could be obscure conflicts in existing relationships, causing some difficulties.

Subconscious impulses may cause you to behave irrationally, and you need to beware of manipulative tendencies in yourself. There are powerful energies at work here, and you need to be able to deal with root causes. Handled properly, this aspect can be a powerful force for good.

PROGRESSED SATURN CONJUNCT NATAL SATURN--Although subtle and perhaps easily overlooked, a new cycle is beginning for you now. By the time this time period is over, you will have made commitments and have begun to dedicate yourself to particular goals. Choose carefully and wisely and set a course that you want. Some decisions you make now are likely to prove to be more important and lasting in their consequences than you had anticipated.

PROGRESSED PLUTO CONJUNCT NATAL PLUTO--During this time period you are likely to discover things you had not known about your family and ancestors, to gain greater psychological insight into yourself, and to develop a better understanding of the historical roots and unconscious motives of others. Although not obvious, all of these experiences are transforming you into a person who is different from what you were before this time period began.
