INTRODUCTION

The Circular Temple degree meanings were developed by astrologer John Sandbach. Like the very popular Sabian Symbols the degree meanings presented in John's Book "The Circular Temple" were initially created by intuitively channeling the information. In addition to the channeled material, John has developed a system for understanding patterns in degree meanings which he uses extensively in his consulting practice. He began working with degree meanings and sign segments in the early 1970's and continues to work intensively on them today. John's first book, "Dwadashamsas: Degree Analyses and Deeper Meanings," on the dwadasamsas (the 12-part divisions of each sign used in Indian astrology), was published in 1978. The study of degrees and variations in astrological meanings in a zodiac sign has been a major part of John's life work. We are fortunate to be able to present to you here the interpretations from "The Circular Temple" with this software. As you can see from the length of them, John has devoted a huge amount of time in developing degree meaning interpretations.

There are actually four separate sets of degree meanings, with a symbolic image for each one: the Omega Symbols (root of the degree), the Pleiadian Symbols (the degree's identity), the Chandra Symbols (how it interacts with the world around it), and the Azoth Symbols (its spiritual goal). Each of these degree meanings describes a different aspect of your personality. The combination of all four symbols gives a detailed picture of how the degree functions in your life. If you're interested in studying the theory of degree meanings, John's book "The Circular Temple" is available on kindle at www.amazon.com.

You will notice that each degree also has a "Seed Degree" and a "Fulfillment Degree." These are zodiacal degrees which have a specific mathematical relationship to the particular degree in question. If you have another planet at a Seed Degree or a Fulfillment Degree, or if another person has a planet at one of these degrees, then that planet acts as a source of inspiration and impetus (Seed Degree) or as a fulfillment of the goals of this degree (Fulfillment Degree).

It is important to synthesize the degree meaning to the planet or other astrological point that is at that degree. For example, the degree meaning for Venus relates to your sense of beauty, art, harmony, and romance, and will bring this energy to whatever degree it occupies. Always remember that the 6th degree of a sign, for example, extends from 5 deg 00 min to 5 deg 59 min 59 sec of the zodiac sign

Lastly, each degree has an "Omega Oracle" which is a prose poem expressing one facet of the degree's energy. The Oracle is meant to stimulate your imagination and to assist you in tuning in more deeply to the meanings and messages of the degree.

The Degree Angels given at the beginning of each degree come to us from the Kabbalah. More information about them can be found in the book "Birth Angels Book of Days" by Terah Cox, available at amazon.com.

Circular Temple Degree Meanings

Sun is 10-11 deg Gemini

Degree Angel: Haiyael (HA-ee-ya-EL) Prophecy and Parallel Universes, Divine Warrior/Weaponry, Transforming/Experimental

TITLE: MERGING WITH HIGHER LEVELS AND/OR FORCES

Omega Symbol: Rain falling on the ocean.

The earth plane is made up of many little parts, which can often seem fragmented and chaotic. You understand innately, though, how all is eventually absorbed into a grand scheme - the play of creative intelligence. You have the ability to look beneath surface ideas and communications into the deeper messages always there beneath every aspect of life. Thousands of tiny deaths lose their separate identity into the vastness of universal life.

Pleiadian Symbol: Right before the museum closes a man hides in a painting.

The creative breaking of rules for the purpose of exploring new realms. An intense attraction to worlds that seem at first inaccessible, but one has such an ability to mutate that one can meld with almost anything.

Chandra Symbol: A stag with golden horns.

Each drop of rain in the Omega Symbol becomes one with all others through merging with the sea. The stag has golden antlers, gold being the metal of the Sun and so the stag merges its highest center, its crown chakra, with the Solar power. This is a degree of tapping into higher levels of awareness as well as the depths of universal consciousness. The question is, what are you going to do with all this richness of awareness that you possess? It is waiting to be used for the lights purposes of healing and the spreading of love and joy - and its up to you to form the vessel of specifics through which to instrument this.

Azoth Symbol: A woman plunges into a river and absorbs its renewing spirit.

A direct and impulsive urge toward renewal. When life becomes too difficult you know it is always because we've lost temporarily our ability to tap into the flow, and you have a wonderful way of being able to rediscover and reconnect with it in the most immediate and refreshing of manners. Note how both this symbol and the Omega Symbol for this degree are about MERGING.

Seed Degree: Leo - 3

Walking down the street, a man passes his double. (Omega Symbol). Startled by a vivid perception of ourselves, we become aware that underlying our ephemeral separateness and uniqueness we are an eternal part of universal consciousness.

A rickshaw. (Chandra Symbol). Going so many places and assimilating so many experience, our head becomes heavy with the gold of meaning.

Fulfillment Degree: Aquarius - 6

Seeing a stone lion in a museum, a young girl asks her parents if they are at the zoo. (Omega Symbol). Merging with the source of life we come to see the aspects of our life that lack aliveness and/or which have becoming overly rigid or predictable, and are able to re-imbue those with new vibrancy.

A gardener with just one leg. (Chandra Symbol). Filled with glorious imaginings, we dedicate ourselves to doing the work it takes to fulfill our vision - no matter how difficult.

Omega Oracle

Each drop of water dies as it merges with the ocean, the soft shock of its dying awakening memories of other fallings from other skies, and awareness of all other drops of past and future dying their own deaths, each drop magnifying the death of each other. And through the falling rain the ocean echoes with a deep, barely audible sigh, a sigh of pleasure as the rain's myriad deaths fill it ever fuller.

Moon is 19-20 deg Aquarius

Degree Angel: VASARIAH (va-SAH-ree-Yah) Memories, Softening of Judgement, Manifesting/Inspired

TITLE: SUBTLE AND GENTLE COMMUNICATION THAT CREATES A DELICACY OF CONNECTION

Omega Symbol: Wind carving sand patterns in the desert.

Mind is seemingly invisible but is always projecting its patterns onto the reality around it, and placing filters - some heavy, some subtle - on experience. This degree is very aware of the workings of mind in itself and others, and though it may not be able to objectively express what that awareness is, it taps into the patterns it creates, and the very awareness of these patterns heals them - gradually over time, and eventually.

Pleiadian Symbol: Across darkening waters a bird carries a sealed letter in its beak.

The water may be dark and dangerous and may offer no points of reference that might allow us to find our way, but the bird has an intuitive knowing of where it is going, and rises above the heaviness below to deliver its message. The darkening waters are like the chasm of the Chandra Symbol, just as the bird is like the fine silk thread.

Chandra Symbol: A fine silk thread strung across a chasm.

Even when people are extremely different in their ways of thinking and beliefs, there is always a way to communicate. This degree is a born master of subtle communication. It has the ability to psychically implant thoughts in other people, not for the purpose of having power over them, but for promoting understanding. It often plays the role of arbitrator in conflicts, and has a powerful, though often unrecognized ability to heal misunderstandings.

Azoth Symbol: On a small, remote island a man recording his visions.

By isolating yourself from the world you are able to clearly access the pictures within and receive their messages. And even if you remain in the world, as you often will you still possess that remote island within where you can go when you need to and have the clarity and focus required to receive the knowledge and wisdom of the wise one who dwells within.

Seed Degree: Scorpio - 29

Through a doorway, nothing but empty, blue sky in all directions. (Omega symbol). Openness and a clearing of expectations and biases allows us to then feel more clearly the movements of energies and patterns.

An umbilical cord. (Chandra Symbol). Returning to our deepest sense of connectedness we come to the realization that we are subtly and profoundly connected to everything.

Fulfillment Degree: Scorpio - 27

At a country fair, some people are clothed, others nude, all wear flowers. (Omega Symbol). Accepting the winds of change and the endless patterns they bring, we are freed to share with any and all types of people to whatever degree of intimacy we desire.

Three blue robin eggs (Chandra Symbol). To be able to communicate deeply and profoundly inspires both us and others with hope.

Omega Oracle

The winds of the Zothar Desert appear to have a kind of creative intelligence, for as they blow they create pathways in the sand, curving parallel lines between which wanderers may walk. These paths twist and fork, sometimes creating blind alleys and dead ends, and corridors which meander for miles through the desert wastes, as they constantly form and reform..

It is said by the wise that a desert is a labyrinth without walls and that the winds of the Zothar, abhorring blankness, use the sands to create their patterns to provide for those who have no idea of which direction to go on a path, even though it leads nowhere.

Mercury is 6-7 deg Gemini

Degree Angel: Eyael (AY-ya-EL) Great Expectations, Transformation to the Sublime, Interacting/Sensitive

TITLE: TRANSCENDENCE OF THE SEEMING LIMITATIONS OF THE PHYSICAL

Omega Symbol: Poetry which sounds beautiful but makes no logical sense.

Logic, which is so compelling and seems so set and clear can be a powerful illusion, for there is always a higher logic, or a different logic which we haven't taken into account. You are aware of this, and know that what people most need is to listen to the music of their soul and the boundless joy it evokes. This is the guiding force of life.

Pleiadian Symbol: Looking down into a well a man sees, far below, his face.

The deep experience of how one's surrounding reality reflects oneself. Looking into the deep sources that have formed one's identity. You have an acute knowing of how anyone's profoundest and most persistent feelings are a reflection of who they think they are and of how they have formed their personality in this lifetime. You have the capacity to receive wonderful, valuable and clear insights into what is at the root of everything.

Chandra Symbol: A table comes to life and runs away.

We sometimes try to make something serve a purpose it doesn't want to serve. Words, too, have a purpose, but in the Omega Symbol they are freed from that purpose to roam in the imagination. This degree is all about giving up expectations and agendas and either letting things be what they will be, or experimenting with them in new, often unorthodox and unexpected ways.

Azoth Symbol: A game of chance offering a fabulous prize.

The willingness to speculate and take risks. Eager anticipation of great opportunities appearing. Limiting beliefs often ward off valuable things that are trying to find their way to us, and you instinctively know how to override these so that utterly unexpected possibilities can present themselves and potentially turn into realities. Like the poetry of the Omega Symbol it makes no logical sense - but it works, and can be so beautiful.

Seed Degree: Gemini - 15

A magician's tower looms above the surrounding landscape. (Omega Symbol). The creative vision of the whole landscape of self allows us to free our mind of limitation and enjoy the beauty of existence as it is.

People gathering salt from the ocean. (Chandra Symbol). Coming to understand how our emotions are subtly connected to the physical world, we let go of deeply held basic assumptions, which opens us up to life's surprises and miracles.

Fulfillment Degree: Libra - 6

On a long voyage, many icebergs encountered. (Omega Symbol). Accepting the mysteriousness of beauty and letting go of the need for explanations, we accept problems and challenges as they are, and learn to deal with them gently, rather than head-on.

A baby with two sets of teeth. (Chandra Symbol). Perceiving that everything has a life of its own, and that everything is always more than it seems, we experience a childlike eagerness to assimilate whatever is nourishing from our experiences.

Omega Oracle

Many of the words had become bored with appropriate relationships and were seeking other, more illicit connections. And definitions, though they had faithfully served the words they were bound to, had, over time begun to exude a boredom that made the words contemplate the possibility of distant travels, or even short trips, but in directions that freed them from all maps. They craved to communicate something new, something that irritated the understanding, causing it to wake out of an unknown sleep. And, of course, knowing all the time that there would always be ample worlds left to the pristine beauty of their unsayability.

Venus is 28-29 deg Aries

Degree Angel: REIYEL (RAY-ee-YEL) Removing Hatred, Liberation, Transforming/Responsible

TITLE: DEDICATION TO EXPERIMENTATION, or FEARLESSNESS OF ANY AND ALL RESULTS AND THE CHALLENGES THEY MIGHT BRING

Omega Symbol: A woman immersed in healing mud.

You have a need to expose yourself to many different things, and to fully engage with whatever you contact. You have a great ability to simplify life by direct contact with the earth and earthly concerns, while never losing sight of the tremendous complexity of life. You know that getting dirty can be a good thing - a therapeutic thing.

Pleiadian Symbol: In voices too low to be heard a forest of trees are talking to each other.

The need for great patience and receptivity in listening to one's inner voice. Interactive rapport of many various forms of knowledge and understanding that transcend rational understanding, and the power to sense these.

Chandra Symbol: Dr. Jekyll drinks the potion.

No running away here, rather an embracing of the unknown and a complete willingness to try something just to see what happens. Of course what will happen is that the dark side of the self will emerge and eventually will be redeemed by being revealed, as we learn we are of the earth, but not prisoners of the earth because we are infinitely more than the earth.

Azoth Symbol: Behind a wall a river is flowing.

Beyond all life's barriers and obstructions you sense the continual movement of energy. You're acutely aware of what people shut out, and their fear of change. You see the need that people have for substantiality, for things to stay the same, but you're constantly aware that beyond all self-imposed limits flows the forces of transformation. Your attunement to this evokes a resonance in others that helps them see a way beyond the restrictions they've created for themselves.

Seed Degree: Pisces - 7

An open-air library, the books magically impervious to the elements. (Omega Symbol). Allowing nature and the earth to heal us we come into fuller and fuller contact with a timeless wisdom.

A candle burning. There is a ring of salt around it on the floor. (Chandra Symbol). If a strong spiritual focus is maintained and our intent is pure and clear, we are free to explore our shadow self.

Fulfillment Degree: Leo - 3

Walking down the street, a man passes his double. (Omega Symbol). If we are willing to see it, we find that our earthly experience provides us with a clear mirror of who we are.

A rickshaw. (Chandra Symbol). Intent on exploring the darkness within, we go to many different places looking everywhere in an attempt to catch reflections of ourselves.

Omega Oracle

She was fully aware that living was dirty business and like a flower she would have to delve into the thick of it if she was ever going to bloom. All the things that had disintegrated to make the soil spilled over the edges of her imagination, mixing with the rocks that had gnashed their gray teeth against each other to make clay, and the rain that gave it all smoothness and flow. It was a pleasure growing into it and up out of it, caught in the middle, which was exactly where she had planted herself.

Mars is 20-21 deg Pisces

Degree Angel: Anael (a-NA-oo-EL) Appreciation, Perception of Unity, Interacting/Experimental

TITLE: THE BRINGING OF VIBRANT CREATIVE ENERGY TO PLACES

AND SITUATIONS DEVOID OF IT

Omega Symbol: In a cold, harsh climate, a woman uses magic to create a lush garden.

This degree is about creating one's own environment for whatever one is trying to accomplish. The forces of nature are eternal and always there when called upon, always willing to assist one if one will simply connect with them and ask for their help. At worst this degree isolates itself in its own dream world. At best it makes the dreamworld a reality and invites others to join in the enjoyment of it.

Pleiadian Symbol: A wizard is showing a young girl and her dog the way to the cave of the gnomes.

The ability to find just the help one needs to proceed on one's path. Connection to sources of wisdom for the purpose of guidance concerning the nature of physical reality and how to deal with it. The innocent seeking of darkness to learn its mysteries.

Chandra Symbol: Pagan fire worshipers dancing at night.

This degree brings light into the darkness and encourages others to join in the process of doing so. It is not about to fall prey to fear, depression, or the confusion of uncertainty. Its attitude is, "light a fire, make up a dance, call in the clan." Even in tragedies and dark dramas it finds something to celebrate, for it knows that inevitably the light will conquer. It also knows that both the dark and light follow complex cycles, that both live and die and are born again. And so even in grim and harsh times it is expectant of sparks which will kindle into new flames, providing new excuses for celebration.

Azoth Symbol: Someone thinks he sees in the distance the ghost of an old man walking across a moor.

The acute awareness of loneliness, loss and separation, and realization of the fact that this simple awareness actually contributes to a healing of it. The old man of this symbol is like the desolation of the cold, harsh climate of the Omega Symbol, and the one seeing the old man is like the woman who creates the lush garden. Both symbols are about bringing love and caring to desolation.

Seed Degree: Sagittarius - 12

Reaching up, a man writes on the sky. (Omega Symbol). Communing with creative intelligence we are able to channel its energies into the physical world to create beauty and food for both ourselves and others.

Icicles melting. (Chandra Symbol). Sharp, jagged, repressed emotions thaw out. It makes us want to light fires and dance.

Fulfillment Degree: Gemini - 30

From far away, a sailor has brought home a carved idol. (Omega Symbol). The effects of magic suddenly appear, and we are surprised. Now we want to know from what distant realms beyond the usual they have come - what are their mythologies - and who their supporting actors?

Many glass animals on a shelf. (Chandra Symbol). The fire dancers dance away all uncertainty. The dance unwinds all confusion, is full of pure knowing. All becomes transparent.

Omega Oracle

The weather was bleak and sunless, rainy and cold, for she lived in the Northern Wastes. And so she knew that if she was to have a garden it must be she who became a climate for the plants. She searched within herself for sunlight, rich soil and gentle moisture. She found it, and bringing it forth she created a world outside herself from the world within her. It was an act of seeing, perceiving, and she imbued the plants with her seeing and they too began to see beyond the world in which they found themselves, and grew in the power of this.

And from this she learned that weather creates walls, but that walls might be imbued with doors through which what was beyond could be let through.

Jupiter is 26-27 deg Aquarius

Degree Angel: REHAEL (RAY-ha-EL) Diamond in the Rough, Filial Submission, Transforming/Sensitive

TITLE: JOY CONTINUALLY REESTABLISHING A STEADIER RHYTHM OF PROGRESS

Omega Symbol: Love steadies a man's irregular heartbeat.

Our connections with ourselves and our reality are going through continual subtle adjustments, and this degree is acutely aware of all kinds of disharmonies that arise. It is also aware that the most effective way to realign these disharmonies is through turning one's attention to feeling the love that is always there. And though it may not realize it's doing this, this is the magic way it brings harmony to many different situations.

Pleiadian Symbol: During a tea ceremony a man briskly mixing tea with a whisk.

He's trying to get the tea to dissolve in the water, to blend the tea into the water so that an even solution results, one that can be easily ingested. This is the merging of earth and water, the full blending of the emotional with the physical, that is, the union of our intuition with the substantial world around us. Neurosis is the schism between the physical reality in which we find ourselves and our inner, emotional world. When the two become harmonized with each other, we lay the stones of the Chandra symbol as an evolutionary path forward.

Chandra Symbol: A man laying stones for a path.

This degree may take great pains to do something, because it knows that once certain tasks are completed, the foundation is laid for greater ease and smoothness of functioning in the future.

It shows the way, even though the way may be difficult. It is intent on exploring new areas of life and of helping others to experience ideas and places that may have hitherto been hidden or in some other ways difficult of access. The building of these paths, is, as expressed in the corresponding Omega Symbol, an act of love that strengthens the heart of both the giver and the receiver.

Azoth Symbol: Blank paper waiting to receive ideas.

Openness to be written upon. A receptivity to any forms, any words or shapes that may desire to appear. This mirrors the man of the Omega Symbol's receptivity to love. The paper manifests a perfect supportiveness.

Seed Degree: Aquarius - 23

In a catacomb, a room decorated with hundreds of skulls and bones. (Omega Symbol). Sensing how our connectedness with each other transcends all changes wrought by time, we realize the love we share and are vitalized by it.

Ancient runes carved at random on gray rocks. (Chandra Symbol). Perceiving many different thoughts and ideas, we attempt to synthesize them into meaningful patterns so we can make our way forward.

Fulfillment Degree: Gemini - 28

A house which keeps growing bigger and bigger. (Omega Symbol). Attuning to love we become increasingly aware of the vastness of our inner self.

A cloud in the shape of a rabbit. (Chandra Symbol). The clarity and definiteness of the Chandra Symbol's path gives us a context from which we can view the vaguer and subtler aspects of reality without losing our way.

Omega Oracle

To the north of Aab in the land of Nevara there blows a wind in autumn which the wise use as an herb to heal the inability to love. Those whose life is without love are advised by the alchemists of Aab to travel to Nevara and, at the proper time of the year, to breathe for three days the air that blows down from the mountains through the forests.

This air is said to lodge in the heart where it creates palpitations - not the common ones whose irregularities are random, but ones whose rhythm carries messages that the heart is said to hunger after and which it ingests like a precious food.

After a matter of a few days these palpitations subside, and when these sufferers from love's lack return to their homes, it is soon after that they invariably encounter, as if by coincidence, the love of their life.

Of course many come here seeking, but the winds' power seems to have no effect on those who suffer romantic addiction, or who have the power of finding love on their own.

Serapis says that the winds are like a grain of sand which enter the heart's oyster, therein creating a most beautiful and invisible pearl, which, to be appreciated, must be given.

Saturn is 21-22 deg Scorpio

Degree Angel: HAKAMIAH (he-KE-mee-YAH) Dumping Depression, Loyalty, Interacting/Sensitive

TITLE: LETTING GO OF OLD AND LIMITED UNDERSTANDINGS WHILE HONORING THEM AS A BASIS FOR A HIGHER UNDERSTANDING

Omega Symbol: A mountain of old shoes.

This degree has weathered so many journeys, has been to so many places, and not only have widely different paths been traveled, but the same paths have also been traveled over and over. It comes to the point that there is no longer any place to go. The shoes may be removed, for we find we have arrived, and the destination all along has been ourselves.

Pleiadian Symbol: Lurkers waiting to observe a bird once thought to be mythical.

The seeking and finding of the strange and miraculous. You expect the wonderful and it comes to you. You know that for this to happen you must be patient and know how to look, and that also you must let go of as many filters and limiting notions as possible so that you can actually see what's there.

Chandra Symbol: A rug woven out of rags.

The clothes are our outer coverings, hence, how we appear outwardly. These outer appearances keep wearing out, so we get new ones and they wear out and eventually we have a bunch of rags. All these appearances are supports for our understanding, that is, something for it to stand on, for Pisces rules the feet and signifies understanding. The other major covering of the body, outside of clothes, is shoes, which show up in the Omega Symbol. So much has worn out. Doesn't it wear you out? No, it only wears out the part of you that wasn't real to begin with - the real you is eternal and can't wear out.

Its good to wear out all these outer coverings - go ahead, wear them out, use them up - they are truly grist for understanding's mill.

Azoth Symbol: A man hears an excited message with clarity and patience.

Crystalline focus in the receiving of information, which promotes a deep understanding of it. The ability to look through turbulence, static and confusion into the heart of what is truly going on. The tuning into hidden messages, sub-texts and subliminal communications.

Seed Degree: Scorpio - 26

A witch dressed in black, her clothes are turning white. (Omega Symbol). When we first ground ourselves we are able to then take in more of the light and then can cast off old forms of understanding so that we may take on newer and clearer ones.

A she-wolf. Her udders full of milk. (Chandra Symbol). Our need to nurture others impels us to get beyond the limits and restrictions of all appearances, and to transform them into supports for our understanding of the truth of who we really are.

Fulfillment Degree: Cancer - 20

A keyboard which plays colors. (Omega Symbol). So many ways to understand things have been moved through and worn out - due to their limitations - until we arrive eventually at a glorious synthesis of harmonious, living, and vibrant joy that colors our whole life with its beauty.

Many brightly colored tropical fish. (Chandra Symbol). When we are able to derive support from all we have ever been, we enter a realm where we find the expression of truth unique to every situation, and constantly varied in its manifestation.

Omega Oracle

Tura Mountain in the south of Aab is the place where traditionally all the people of Aab take their worn out shoes, which they leave there on rocks, under trees and in any places they might choose. Visiting the mountain, one is awestruck with the number of shoes one finds there, for it seems that Aab, which is a sparsely populated realm, could not have spawned so many denizens, even given the great length of its history.

No one is quite sure of the exact reason for the time honored tradition of shoe burial, but Zingar Reth gives the most plausible and generally accepted explanation. He says that feet signify understanding, and since the soul comes into the physical plane to advance its understanding, it is where it touches the earthly realm, mainly with the feet, that generates this symbology.

The number of potential understandings are endless, and understanding of one sort amplifies all others, hence the urge to bring together understandings so that their multifarious nature may come ever more closely to reflect a wholeness.

Uranus is 28-29 deg Pisces

Degree Angel: Haiyael (HA-ee-ya-EL) Prophecy and Parallel Universes, Divine Warrior/Weaponry, Transforming/Responsible

TITLE: CREATIVE USE OF THE MAGIC OF SYMBOLS, FORMULAS AND RITUALS or EMPATHETIC ENTRAINMENT TO COSMIC ENERGIES

Omega Symbol: A book of healing mantras.

At its highest this degree senses what is needed in every situation. It realizes that where the focus of attention is placed is where energy will be magnified. We become what we focus on. There is a feeling here for the symbols that recur to us, the ideas that flow through us in repetitive fashion - and the ability to use these as keys to greater understanding and a way off the wheel of karma.

Pleiadian Symbol: The shifting and modulating of light frequencies creating messages in color.

Discovering ways of communicating that are transcendent and which convey subtleties of cosmic meaning. It is not easy to communicate the wonder and complexity of what you perceive, because there is so much of it and it happens so fast. But you can allow it to enter you and give you whatever it needs to, so that through you at least a part of it may be radiated to others.

Chandra Symbol: Balinese dancers wearing elaborate gold costumes.

To make everything beautiful, everything important - golden and shining - is the power and the art of this degree. The dancers tell many stories through their movements, but in each story they all wear the same gold costumes, just as in life no matter what role we play we may always bring to it a spiritually elevated, cosmic element. In whatever this degree does there can be a sublime grace and elegance. The need here is to realize that gift and through focusing on it, to magnify it as much as possible.

Azoth Symbol: A line in a drawing is reminding a woman of many things.

You're able to go deeply into one thing and through it to access many things. You're aware of the layered depths inherent in any gesture or expression.

Certain particular things are always captivating your attention, and this is because they have a message for you, so its highly beneficial to allow yourself to focus on whatever is calling to you and to give it the time and attention to express as much of its meaning as possible.

Seed Degree: Pisces - 18

A dressmaker fashioning beautiful gowns for a queen. (Omega Symbol). Searching for the clearest vehicle through which to manifest our spiritual self, our focus on universal truth becomes simpler and purer.

White lilies blooming alone in the shade. (Chandra Symbol). From a cool, clear purity evolves beautiful rituals through which cosmic meaning is expressed.

Fulfillment Degree: Aquarius - 30

For many years, on an island, people dig deeper and deeper to find a treasure. (Omega Symbol). Continuing over and over to return one's focus to connecting with spirit, one naturally helps others in the pursuit of the goal of evolution.

A large pool filled with white water lilies in bloom. (Chandra Symbol). To envision the grace and beauty shining forth from everything brings to the world an emotional peace and clarity that one desires to share with others.

Omega Oracle

"The Golden Word," a seven volume book of mantras, was compiled by the Alchemist Narshaad Rostan. He included in it not only traditional mantras, but also mantras which he said were given to him by angels and other spirits to include in his work. Detailed information is provided as to the various illnesses and problems that each mantra can heal, as well as the number of times each one is to be said, and other rituals to be performed in their saying.

Narshaad also describes in his book how the spirit of a certain nameless alchemist came to him and explained to him the art of combining mantras, so that often groups of mantras were chanted in specific patterns involving, in some examples, as many as 70 or more mantras at a time. Other mantras were given that were actually in the form of melodies meant to be sung to particular sequences of vowels, and other mantras in which each syllable was to be chanted by a single individual, so that a twenty syllable mantra required twenty people who would stand in a circle and each chant his own syllable in sequence so that the mantra revolved around the circle. Other mantras were to be chanted so slowly that only one word was said a day, the rest of the day requiring the total silence of the chanter until the next day when the next word was said. Other mantras were supposed to be chanted forwards, then backwards, then forwards again and continuing on in this pattern.

Many of the mantras were said only to work when chanted under particular astrological conditions, and others only when it was snowing, or raining, or on cloudless days.

At the time of his death Narshaad had not completed his great text, and the spirit of the nameless alchemist is still seeking someone through whom he can impart the rest of his information.

For those who might be interested, there is a mantra in Volume 6 on page 792 of "The Golden Word" which will summon him. He waits.

Neptune is 22-23 deg Leo

Degree Angel: Haiyael (HA-ee-ya-EL) Prophecy and Parallel Universes, Divine

Warrior/Weaponry, Interacting/Receptive

TITLE: THE SENSING OF OTHER REALITIES AND THE URGE TO BRING MAGIC INTO THIS REALM

Omega Symbol: A secret race of beings carrying on a hidden existence among humans.

You see things others aren't aware of. The question is, will people believe you when you share your insights? It's best not to focus on this, but on the truth and wisdom behind what you're saying - its essence - rather than the details or physical veracity of it. You also need to learn how to feed your insights to others gradually, and in a way they will accept. Sometimes it takes people awhile to see an open door and to move through it.

Pleiadian Symbol: A ghostly white figure riding a horse in the twilight.

The ebbing of rational consciousness which frees the soul to roam in search of that for which it deeply yearns. The night is coming, it is twilight, but the figure is white, and glowing - it has a light of its own which will allow it to find its way in the darkness. Just by being this degree brings succor to those that suffer or who are plagued by fear and confusion.

Chandra Symbol: An old man cutting mistletoe off an oak tree with a golden knife.

You make yourself and what you are doing important, and at best you help others to see themselves as important also, and to become more aware of the cosmic significance of what they're doing. You create ritual and drama which beautify the world and make others aware of the larger picture and the grand scheme of things. You are about rescuing life from the mundane and trivial.

Azoth Symbol: A plate covered with beautiful depictions of flowers.

The constant reminding of oneself of the beauty and wonder that exists in the world. Keeping the memory of loveliness always in one's consciousness. This is not just a picture of flowers, it is a plate -- we're meant to feed off it. This degree can bring a profuse loveliness to the pleasures of existence.

Seed Degree: Capricorn - 3

A reference book on poisons. (Omega symbol). When we can figure out which energies are detrimental to our well being, we can then know what sorts of things to accept and what to reject.

A woman sneezing pepper and sneezing violently. (Chandra Symbol). Rejecting from our being whatever it is we do not need we then are able to clearly to take what we do need from life with reverence and respect.

Fulfillment Degree: Aquarius - 22

A master healer is gradually restructuring someone's body. (Omega Symbol). Becoming more and more aware of the subtle effects of unseen forces, we are able to enlist them to clear stress and create harmony within ourselves.

A woman making lace. (Chandra Symbol). As we become more acutely aware of each energy in life we are enlisting to help us, we become more adept at delicately and carefully organizing the patterns and harmonies of our existence.

Omega Oracle

They came long ago to offer help, but found few takers. Nevertheless the thought of leaving never occurred to them, for they were innately patient, and impervious to frustration, and had encountered such lack of receptivity countless times before.

They knew that sometimes, through mere co-existence, a seemingly imperceptible absorption would occur directly, out of the shared atmosphere, infinitesimally small in the short term, but cumulative in the ongoing, until pictures and ideas inevitably seeped in, even if only taking recognizable form over vast periods of time.

Their race was famous for its indirection -it had taken them eons to hone such a fine subtlety of approach. And now that such workings came so effortlessly to them, they could enjoy the simple tasks of their own daily life, invisibly interpenetrating with the lives of those for whom they waited.

Degree Angel: Vasariah (va-SAH-ree-Yah) Memories, Clemency and Equilibrium, Transforming/Responsible

TITLE: SAVING WHAT IS VALUABLE FROM THE PAST TO USE FOR THE FUTURE

Omega Symbol: In an old display case, a collection of rare mineral specimens.

You are a collector of things, an accumulator. The fearful part of you is backward looking, attached to the past and nostalgic for distant times. The courageous you has the power to learn from what you have accumulated, to study it, see new aspects of it, and to let these findings be the groundwork for a future of higher consciousness.

Pleiadian Symbol: At night a visionary is peering over the curve of the horizon.

Intuitively seeing beyond the physical limits of experience. The expanding of one's view of reality by going beyond the information provided by one's senses.

Chandra Symbol: A dried up stream bed covered with smooth rocks.

The Omega symbol is a collection of precious rocks, the Chandra Symbol is a collection of random rocks, which, rather than each being distinct have been worn smooth by water, that is, made more uniform with each other. Either way, we are dealing here with collections of rocks. We admire them in the case of the Omega Symbol, for their beautiful color and striking or unusual form. In the case of the Chandra Symbol, we can admire them for their plainness. The fact that they are rocks and not butterflies means that this degree is about the need for grounding, the need to assess what holds us down and holds us back. - the burdens we have collected, and the insecurities that prevent us from letting them go. As we process these through our emotional body (the stream) they become smooth, meaning the pain wears away, and as we become released from suffering we recognize them for what they are and see fully what they have taught us.

Azoth Symbol: A scroll on the wall. On it in calligraphy is a sacred text.

The continual return to truths that hold meaning for the self, and a gaining of more and more knowledge as they are perceived at deeper and deeper levels. The scroll carries the "gems of wisdom" found in the display case of the Omega Symbol.

Seed Degree: Virgo - 10

A baby fascinated by many differently colored vials of healing elixirs. (Omega Symbol). Our direct and innocent love of the sensuality of nature impels us to want to get closer to its various manifestations in an attempt to better understand them all.

A pin cushion. (Chandra Symbol). Being a receptacle for the creative and stimulating energies of the universe we move toward sharing these with other people in a smooth, gentle, and easy fashion. Or, on another level, we find methods of temporarily bringing and holding things together until we can accept the way they find each other on their own.

Fulfillment Degree: Scorpio - 9

Looking through a microscope, a man sees a woman waving at him. (Omega Symbol). We feel a continuing urge to draw things close to us until, as we relate to them more intimately, we finally feel their spirit and make a deep connection with them.

A hand with six fingers. (Chandra Symbol). The sharp, painful edges of our experiences being worn away, we are able to give to and receive from the universe in a completely open manner.

Omega Oracle

From far-off places they came, crystals bearing their colors dug from the earth, retrieved from caves and mines and stream beds and fallen from the sky. As he looked into the case he saw into the realms from which each one had come, each rock a window into the dark world under foot, or, as with the meteors, the dark worlds above.

The earth pronounces its words slowly - a single one might take a lifetime. Unless, of course, one stepped out of time and caught the echoes of the past, listening into the future.

Ascendant is 13-14 deg Leo

Degree Angel: lah-hel (EE-a-HEL) Parent - Teacher not Preacher, Desire to Know, Transforming/Responsible

TITLE: GRAVITATION TOWARD HIGHER SOURCES OF ENERGY

Omega Symbol: Toward the center of a galaxy, the concentration of stars becomes denser and denser.

You're aware that angels are everywhere -whether you call them that or not. You might just think of these energies as goodness, or beauty, or joy. Conscious of it or not, you are a messenger for the angels, and all you have to do is to give into it, let it happen, and above all keep at it, even if at times your messages are heard only faintly or not at all.

Pleiadian Symbol: Tiny balls of multicolored lights flickering through a forest.

The realization of all sorts of beauties and perfections moving through the natural world. These balls incarnate as the jasmine flowers of the Chandra Symbol. This degree can possess a bubbling, magical energy that mutates very quickly and which has an inexplicably enlivening effect on everything around it.

Chandra Symbol: Fields of jasmine flowers.

Jasmine flowers enhance self-esteem as well as physical and sensual attraction, and is administered homeopathically to bring back energy. The density of the stars in the Omega Symbol are like the density of the jasmine blossoms in the fields. The truth of this degree is that we all have each other as great resources of learning, wisdom, joy and delight. And since we become what we focus on, all we need to do is keep focusing on the loving connections that are everywhere around us.

This is a Scorpio degree of Leo, and hence signifies the regenerative powers inherent in allowing our being to express the spiritual light.

Azoth Symbol: Mist condensing on wildflowers.

Love magnetized toward supporting all sorts of simple and natural beauty and healing. The gargantuan concentration happening over vast light years of the Omega Symbol becomes the quiet gentle condensation of this symbol.

Seed Degree: Virgo - 11

The smell of ancient perfume as an Egyptian tomb is opened. (Omega Symbol). To be able to intuitively grasp the essence of things and to deeply tap into the past leads us to an ability to connect with all the various intelligences of the universe.

A four-year-old girl dressed as a nurse. (Chandra Symbol). The innocent desire to be of service in helping to heal the world proliferates a vibration of joy and strength all around one.

Fulfillment Degree: Taurus - 12

A man making talismans for protection. (Omega Symbol). Tapping in to all the positive energies of the universe we are impelled to find a means to use them to defend ourselves from the forces of darkness and chaos.

A very old elephant. (Chandra Symbol). Continuing to immerse ourselves in joy and spiritual certainty, we eventually accumulate a great store of wisdom, power, and patience.

Omega Oracle

The galaxy bloomed, throwing forth its pollen of light. For many centuries he stood gazing in space, watching the galaxy unfold as it swirled. To witness such a garden took great patience, and cost much time, which he could have spent living on one planet or another, inventing other lives and loves for himself. But he felt all the eons were well worth watching this entertainment.

Moving closer he found the stars falling around him like snow, the blizzard of light growing denser as the black hole at the galaxy's center drew him into itself, reducing him as he sped toward it, to an infinitely tiny seed of ecstasy.

MC is 6-7 deg Taurus

Degree Angel: Aniel (AH-nee-EL) The Big Picture, Breaking the Circle, Interacting/Sensitive

TITLE: THE PROTECTIVE POWER OF POSITIVE INTENTION

Omega Symbol: A man cleansing his aura with pink light.

You have the power to ignore all negativity and allow the spiritual light to shine through you. You feel the great bountifulness of the universe, and know that love is the key to accessing it. You are able to constantly regenerate yourself, even after great crises, traumas, and failures. The more you allow yourself to do this and be this, the faster your work in this life will progress.

Pleiadian Symbol: At a well a large cask filled with cool water.

The invitation to share refreshment and renewal. Drawing sustenance from deep inner resources. The meeting of emotional needs in a direct, pure and satisfying manner. The Chandra Symbol: A large ruby inscribed with a prayer.

Ruby is the ayurvedic gem of the Sun, the planet of will and hence intent. The prayer inscribed on the Ruby is saturated with intent, just as the man cleansing his aura must use intent if his work is to be effective. He inscribes his aura with a prayer of pink light. The degree is about focusing and refocusing one's intent again and again until the focus becomes eternally imbedded in the consciousness.

Azoth Symbol: Research leads a man from one book to another.

Continual pursuit of deeper and deeper levels of knowledge. You're able to meaningfully synthesize ideas and information from many different sources and in doing so come up with valuable and unique results. You're clever, open-minded, and tremendously curious and these traits can lead to marvelous discoveries.

Seed Degree: Gemini - 14

The sound of drumming brings everyone into the present. (Omega Symbol). Grounding ourselves in the moment we are automatically ready for new beginnings.

A sorcerer materializes an amethyst cross. (Chandra Symbol). The gifts received from the spiritual realms yearn to be shared with others.

Fulfillment Degree: Aries - 4

A man destroying a wall as he attempts to eradicate black mold from a house. (Omega Symbol). Renewed by love and joy, we set about to tear down the obstructive accretions of the past.

A cup overflowing with clear water. (Chandra Symbol). Focusing on love generates the magic of endless abundance.

Omega Oracle

As the colors of alchemy are black, white, and red, the secondary ones are derived from the blending of two of these colors, hence gray (black and white), maroon (red and black), and pink (red and white).

Gray is uncertainty, a portal devoid of biases through which being eventually comes into knowing.

Maroon is the weight of earth, blood sleeping in darkness, which is to be made light.

But the queen of these is pink, wherein blood is wedded to light ever present, both seen and unseen, the mystic marriage of red and white.

And so the alchemists of Aab partake often of the pink light, called "The Waiting Effulgence" -- a living sea forever reviving and cleansing the spirit.
