Introduction

Some people call them Angels, others call them guardian spirits, and still others use the name daimon, djinn, or demon (for a fallen Angel). Some Angels appear with wings; others have the form of a lion or other bird or beast. According to many sources, there are nine or ten orders of Angels. The most common are these: Seraphim, Cherubim, Thrones, Dominions, Virtues, Powers, Principalities, ArchAngels, and Angels. Some lists include Hosts. Angels are sometimes called Watchers and Holy Ones.

You may recognize a church hymn that begins:

*"Ye Watchers and ye Holy Ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim and Thrones,
Sing their praises!
Alleluia!"*

Or these lines from Shakespeare's Hamlet:

*"Angels and ministers of grace defend us!" (Act I, scene 4)
"And flights of Angels sing thee to thy rest!" (Act V, scene 2)*

You don't have to practice any particular religion, or any religion at all, to establish a relationship with your guardian spirits. Calling upon Angels is as simple as this:

1. First you recognize that Angels exist.
2. Then you identify an Angelic spirit or energy for which you feel an affinity.
3. Then you praise that Angel, as you would praise the Lord, the Virgin, or any object of your prayers.
4. Only then do you ask for help.
5. Give thanks for whatever help comes.
6. Finally, watch for signs that your call has been answered.

While the Bible only names three Angels (Gabriel, Michael and Raphael), plenty of Angels are mentioned (the word Angel or its derivatives is used about 300 times in the Bible). Other sources list the names of hundreds of Angels, along with their natures and their responsibilities. Many holy books tell us that Angels are appointed to watch over us, and our literature and entertainment are filled with examples of Angelic presence.

This interpretation focuses on the Angels that are most prominent in your life. You will learn who they are, what they govern, what they can do for you, and how they work together. You will also learn ways to become more aware of them - ways to tune in to their protection and their messages. We each have at least one Angel or daimon who is always with us, who never deserts us, and who offers constant creative inspiration, if we only will listen. Today you can learn more about how to listen to your unique set of Angelic guides.

As you read this interpretation, you will again and again find indications of specific ways to call upon Angels quickly and safely through prayer and meditation. I have called these activities meditations, but I personally also see these as prayers and I have included affirmations - short positive statements of personal intention - for your use. As you practice working with your Angels, you will become adept at contacting them in an instant when you most need their support and help. Since they are always around you, calling Angels is never a difficult accomplishment. However, you may not have any experience at calling Angels! Now, as you read and gain some understanding through this report, you can tune in directly to specific Angels for specific aid.

The hallmarks of true Angelic presence are these:

1. The messages are always loving, positive and clear.
2. Angelic messages and support leave you feeling confident, and certain.
3. Angels are not summoned, they are sent. Yet through visualization and meditation, you can become aware of their eternal dwelling in and around you.

In keeping with the qualities of Angels, I encourage you to listen to your Angels. Call upon them for guidance, but do not intentionally summon them. Instead, allow them to enter your presence by meditating on an Angelic image, wrapping yourself in the feeling of well-being and safety that you have experienced in the past, and patiently allowing yourself to fill with Angelic peace.

Angels of the Cardinal Directions

The Angels of the directions may show up in your interpretation later in this report. If they do, by reading this section you will be able to recognize their power. If not, you can refer to this report and consider these four possibilities in your life when you travel in their direction, when you are planning a garden, or when you walk outdoors.

East - Michael

The American Indians associate the eagle with the East Wind. The eagle has remarkable vision and can see things in perspective, as well as identify tiny objects on the ground far below. The East is related to the human kingdom, and the eastern wind brings spiritual considerations into your mind. It is in your nature to determine what you do with any gift, any task, or any burden you have been given. The Angel of the East can help you seek the higher spiritual meanings of everything you experience.

Through meditation, you can cultivate choices in any situation. In meditation, allow your mind to seek three possibilities. Some of the choices may seem weak or unacceptable to you, but they are still choices. Initially you may have simply said no to such an option. Some of the choices may seem strong for one reason or another. Michael can help you determine which choice is the best for you to follow. Occasionally you will find that your meditation leads you back to the choice you initially refused. What seemed unacceptable at first sometimes turns out to be the best path after all.

If you feel drawn to the Angel Michael, you may want to incorporate an early morning ritual into your daily life. Stand with your face to the sun to gather in energy for your day's activities. This is effective even before the sun rises.

North - Uriel

The buffalo is the animal the American Indians associated with the North Wind. Buffalo medicine was among the most power resources the Indians had, just as the buffalo was their primary source of food, warmth, and everything they needed. The North, then, is associated with material sustenance. The power of the North lies in receiving that which we need. To cultivate the capacity to receive, we need to cultivate the mind.

Through meditation, you can cultivate your mind by developing flexible mental boundaries. The mind can take you wherever you wish to go. Through meditation, you can learn to identify the meaning behind simple facts, and the application of the principles of love to each fact you discover. In addition, the North is associated with the quiet, even dormant quality of mind. You may also develop some skill in allowing your mind to rest quietly, so that insight may arise.

If you feel drawn to the Angel Uriel, you may want to incorporate prayers or acts of thanksgiving into your daily life. By recognizing the bounty in your life, you also enhance it.

West - Gabriel

The American Indians associated the grizzly bear with the West Wind. This strongest of all bears represents Gabriel, a very powerful Angel. The power of the west lies in teaching you about self-sufficiency. The power of the grizzly is to teach patience. This animal seldom hurries for anything.

The West relates to the mineral kingdom. Through your meditation, you may learn the value of certain gems and minerals to heal mental or physical ills. Each gem has existed long before you thought of embarking on your present physical existence. According to Kenneth Meadows in Earth Medicine, the senses can be developed through the use of peridot (vision), onyx (hearing), carnelian (touch), topaz (taste), and jasper (smell).

If you feel drawn to the Angel Gabriel, you may want to end each day with a few minutes of meditation in which you consider the activities of the day, and seek guidance through dreams.

South - Raphael

The animal the American Indians associated with the South Wind was the mouse. This tiny creature has profound wisdom all its own. The mouse perceives the world on a very small scale. This animal reflects your capacity to relate to things and people by getting closer to them - close enough to touch. Often we engage emotional feelings when we are close enough to physically touch another person.

Raphael can aid you in your meditation by bringing you more in touch with your own body, and with your immediate surroundings. The South Wind emphasizes self-awareness as a foundation for giving to others. Out of self-awareness comes compassion for others. As you cultivate self-awareness, you also begin to trust the Universe to provide whatever you need to become that compassionate being you glimpse in your meditation.

If you feel drawn to the Angel Raphael, you may want to incorporate an activity into your daily life that you do just for yourself. For example, daily bathing offers a private time to allow healing energy to wash over your body.

Your Most Powerful Angelic Connections

Neptune

The planet Neptune, by its sign, house placement, and aspects, reveals the Angels that most strongly support and influence your life. You always have Angels around you, and you may have identified specific Angels from time to time throughout your life. Some of the Angels mentioned in this report have familiar names, some have unfamiliar names, and there are many Angels without names. You may find that the familiar Angels seem to have more power. This is because they have been invoked many times by many people, and therefore they have more apparent power. Your personal Angels, even if they have no names, are powerful to you, and they help you focus your individual energy more effectively.

Neptune is in Leo

With Neptune in Leo, you are part of an entire generation of people who share in the influence of the Angel Verchiel.

As a ruler of the order of Powers, Verchiel can instill you with a sense of your own personal power. You gain courage, and you also gain the capacity to understand and occasionally work miracles. Certainly, you can work miracles on the emotional and mental plane by helping others to find their own strength and courage. In this sense you gain the capacity for leadership from Verchiel.

Although sources differ, the power of this Angel is often associated with the green healing energy of the heart chakra, and with the emerald gem.

The Angel Verchiel is also empowered to bring light into your life. He can cast light on dark places within your heart, and he can light up your surroundings to help you see the truth behind obscure speech and actions.

Meditation for Verchiel

Meditation requires focus and practice in order to become familiar and easy to do. Yet it requires nothing that you do not already have in the way of clothing, equipment, or mental faculties.

1. Wear loose clothing that will keep you warm or cool, depending on the season and conditions.
2. Sit and cross your legs. You may want to use a small pillow to raise your seat and ease the pressure on your ankles. If this posture is not comfortable, you can also sit in a chair that allows you to keep your back erect.
3. Place your hands on your thighs so that your upper arms are vertical and the position feels relaxed. You can adjust your hand position as needed.

4. Gaze at the floor about six to eight feet in front of you so that your eyes are open, looking slightly downward.
5. Breathe in and out slowly. Follow your breath as it goes out, and feel it as you inhale. Allow yourself to notice any sensations in your body, and any sounds in your environment. Do this for a minute or two.
6. Notice when you have a thought cross your mind. Regardless of the thought or how silly it seems, associate the thought with compassionate feelings.
7. For each thought that arises in your awareness, associate the thought with your feelings of compassion.
8. Do this for ten minutes or longer, if you have time.

Sometimes you will have many thoughts arising, and other times you may find that the same thought or the same face or the same object comes into your awareness again and again. Notice how it feels different to associate compassion with people you love or dislike, objects you own or which you owned, and actions you have taken or wish to take. Sometimes you may feel silly doing this meditation, and other times you will be moved to tears.

Compassion begins with yourself. Compassion regarding your own thoughts is the first step toward compassion for others. The idea here is that there is no goal of your compassion. You learn to simply express it freely and easily, pretty much all the time.

Neptune is in the 3rd Decanate in Leo

Corvus - Ambition

Corvus, the Crow constellation, represents the ambitious goals of the third decanate of Leo. There is a bit of danger: you risk allowing ambition to take over your thought altogether. The prize reflected in the third decanate of Leo is obtained through harnessing your ambition in the pursuit of intellectual excellence. The idea is for you to work consciously with your ambitions, fulfilling the highest potential through the application of intellectual effort. Angels support you with calm and peace to moderate the rush of excitement that comes when ambition takes over your judgment.

Affirmation

I choose the direction of my personal growth.

Neptune is in the 10th House

With Neptune in the Tenth House, your Angelic focus is on contemplation of the supernatural. You relish opportunities to connect with the magic and wonder of your environment and the Universe. In fact, it is through this kind of activity that you can flourish in your career or life's mission.

Your capacity for meditation provides a way for you to dig deeply into spiritual or other problems. By calming your mind and body, you are better able to open to the extraordinary power of your Angels. You, more than most people, benefit from regular meditation.

A weakness, if there is one, is the potential for lying or illegal activities. You are driven to achieve highly idealized goals, and you could succumb to the temptation to use nefarious means to achieve them. Although such methods might seem to work for a while, you will soon find that you have caused more trouble than you bargained for. Your Angels help you to stay on the path of personal integrity, and to avoid the problems that come with illegal activities.

As you cultivate Angelic presence, you may achieve strange objectives almost miraculously. You have the imagination to come up with many creative solutions to the problems you encounter, and your Angels steer you toward the best solutions.

The possibility for you to develop psychic and intuitive skills is great. You have a keen interest in the mystical side of religion and could make a study of the mystical practices of several religions. You may study Masonic ritual, esoteric disciplines, or martial arts like Aikido that incorporate meditation and healing in their disciplines.

The artist Leonardo da Vinci and esotericist Alice A Bailey had Neptune in the Tenth House.

Angels in Your Daily Life

The Ascendant

The Ascendant in your chart is the sign rising in the East at the time of your birth. As such it also reflects the way your personality rises new and refreshed to greet each day. The Angel of the Ascendant also rises each day to assist you in renewing your personality and your personal resolve.

The Ascendant is in Libra

With the Ascendant in Libra, you gain strength from the Angel Uriel who alleviates destructive desires. The quality that shines forth freely in your personality is affection. You genuinely love other people, and you desire companionship. Your style of partnership is rich in the appearance of cooperation and sympathy, and not so deep in the powerful energy of sexuality, although that is definitely a component. You attract people to yourself magnetically.

Uriel, the Angel of your rising sign, seeks to establish or re-establish balance in your life. At times you may feel that your Angels are pushing you very hard, even punishing you, yet they are always on your side, seeking the best for you.

You are attracted to perfume, clothing, and decorating. These ordinary facets of your personality combine with diplomacy to make you a great host or hostess. You always seem to know what to say or do to make other people feel at home and comfortable.

If you are interested, you have an affinity for politics and could go far in this field. Your natural charm and good looks make it easy for you to convince people to vote with you. Uriel will keep you on the straight and narrow path, so don't even think about making any dirty deals along the way! The price will be too high.

Meditation on the Air Element

Actually a group of Angels, the Cherubim provide knowledge in the form of facts combined with logical thinking. Whether you develop this knowledge into wisdom through your own acts is a personal matter. The Cherubim have the advantage of being able to see in all four directions at once, just as the eagle can see in all directions when it flies high in the air. When you call upon the Cherubim, you are asking to perceive many sides of any question or situation, and you will not be disappointed.

Often depicted as infants or young children, the Cherubim bring tremendous joy to the experience of learning. You may find that when you call upon them, you are turned in a new direction, one you have not considered, yet one that becomes a very significant path for a portion of your life.

When you call upon the Cherubim, you may brush against the holiness that pervades the universe. They not only bring truth, but a sense of reverence for it.

One way to cultivate the power of cherubs is to meditate on the qualities of smoke. You can imagine yourself floating up with the smoke from incense or a fire, and spreading yourself out on the smoke as it drifts. In this way you gain the broadest possible perspective, and you can see everything that is happening below, with the keen eye of the eagle.

The Midheaven

The Midheaven in your chart is associated with an Angel who helps you understand yourself, and who is activated at specific times to bring the necessary understanding at moments of great transition or transformation.

The Midheaven is in Cancer

With the Midheaven in Cancer, you make your mark on the world with the aid of the Angel Muriel who provides support in difficult times. You know that you are a planner. Like water chooses the most direct path downhill, you choose and design your own path through life. In the process, you nurture yourself and others. You also see in yourself the capacity for consideration of others. You understand the importance of feelings and you respect the feelings of the people you meet.

Because of your own impressionability, you perceive the thoughts and feelings of people around you. You build a shell to protect yourself so that the ebb and flow of emotional energy will not tear you apart. You continue to be affected by energies in your environment, but you have a container for your own feelings. You can be persuaded, but not easily changed.

How do you personally perceive signs that your prayers have been answered, or that your Angels have heard you? When you pick yourself up after difficult events, you know that you have been supported and protected. Like the crab that can grow a new claw, you find that you can re-establish yourself on solid footing.

Another way you perceive your Angels at work is through your capacity to respond to life. You can also choose not to respond, remaining self-contained and apparently uncaring. To counteract the risk of becoming too rigid and isolated, your Angels help you to find emotional and intellectual release of energies before they build up to the boiling point. The combination of the Cancer Midheaven and the Angelic energies of Muriel is indicative of careers involving some form of nurturing, such as restaurant work, counseling, or independent sales of any product designed for general consumption by the public.

Meditation for The Midheaven

1. Sit or kneel in a comfortable posture, back erect.
2. Begin by breathing in and out, settling into your posture and gazing slightly downward.
3. As you breathe, allow awareness of your future goals to fill your mind.
4. Develop a rich, vibrant feeling of what achieving the goal will look like, feel like, and sound like. Consider all your senses as you build awareness.
5. As you do this meditation, notice how your attitude toward your goal may shift or become even more defined.
6. Do this meditation for a few minutes.
7. When you are finished, write about your impressions for future reference.

The Midheaven is in the 3rd Decanate in Cancer

As you experience both the water sign Cancer and the fire sign Leo, you know you sometimes experience a drying up of emotions. If you grasp at material things to assuage your lack of feelings, you fail to appreciate what you already have. Angelic presence allows you to appreciate both material things and associations with other people more fully.

Neptune is the Ruler of the 5th House

As you cultivate your personal Angels, you discover that your capacity for creativity expands beyond anything you previously imagined. The full range of creation, recreation, and procreation presents itself to you. If you have come up short in one of these areas, the other two can fill your life with joy and excitement.

You also find that you become more self-reliant when your Angels are perceived to be active in your life. Where you once may have hesitated to take action, now you choose your direction with greater confidence and self-possession. You especially enjoy the phase of a project in which you begin to see the end results taking form. Of course, you have to make a beginning and do the intermediate work before you can approach a point of completion, and your Angels help you at every stage.

Pisces is a water sign. Your meditation can be aided by placing one or more containers of water around you. Often you can relax your mind while bathing, as the movement of water helps to stir your creative energies. The watery movement, combined with chanting, reading, or simply thinking about a mantra, can help you to discard old ideas and feelings. You may see through apparent reality to a subtler level of creativity in this way.

The Sun

The Sun is the center of our solar system, and symbolizes the spiritual center of your being. It reflects your individuality as you express it in this lifetime, and it also expresses your spiritual potential for this lifetime. The Angel closely associated with your Sun sign can help you to be the best, happiest person possible.

The Sun is in Libra

With the Sun in Libra, you gain strength from the Angel Uriel who alleviates destructive desires. Balance and equilibrium are the heart of your Sun sign. You know that while balance is a desired outcome in your activities, you do not arrive at equilibrium without effort, and the effort itself is not totally balanced. Yet through social manner, artistic talent and appreciation, and the capacity to adapt, you are able to restore balance in most situations.

Uriel aids you in your pursuit of harmony by creating space in which you can rest your mind and regroup for the next task. Out of the balance you create in your life comes the urge to take another step along your spiritual path. Here you bring your physical, emotional, mental and spiritual desires and aspirations into truer balance.

As your whole system comes into balance, you find that your expression, whether verbal, artistic, or physical, more closely reflects your feelings and your spiritual values. You also find that you can mediate between parties in a disagreement without letting your own opinions enter the conflict.

Interacting With Angels

While you are going about your daily activities, the Angels around you are interacting according to your unique personality, desires, and needs. Imagine that you are on stage, acting out your role in life. Behind the scenes your personal Angels are arranging what you need, discussing how you feel, and possibly even debating the best way to help you. You don't have to worry about their actions because they continue to act in your best interests even when you are unaware. The following aspects indicate how your personal Angels work for you throughout your life. If you have no aspects to Neptune, that circumstance is also discussed. As you work with your Angels, you will become more and more aware of these themes and what they mean for you.

Venus is Conjunct Neptune

With Venus Conjunct Neptune, you experience a profound interaction between Aniel and Tamiel. Aniel is the Angel Guardian of sexuality, and Tamiel governs your unconscious energies and your dreams. Together they form a powerful channel for all creative energy, and sexuality is one of the most potent of these.

You probably have experienced the longing for love. You wish to experience love from family, friends, and romantic partners. Aniel and Tamiel team up to provide all sorts of fantasies in this department, and they also help you to manifest some of those fantasies in truly moving and supportive relationships.

You have a potent erotic imagination. When you think about sex, you are able to supply all the fine lines and broad brushstrokes, all the intonations of voice, and all the physical sensations of passion. Your erotic dreams may take on epic proportions.

You have a well-defined interest in mysticism, even if you don't recognize it at first. You are drawn toward exotic clothing and foods, unusual expressions of faith and love, and even to dark vampire-like expressions of passion and possession. Remember, the light, bright side of love is balanced by darker energies, and to experience the light, you must at least be aware of the darker side of your fantasies.

High ideals, though, can lead you to the spiritual heights of sexuality. You are naturally receptive. Aniel and Tamiel support you in discovering a safe, secure partnership in which you can surrender to passion!

One potential weakness is your susceptibility to influence from others. Infatuation can end in rather crushing disappointment when you find that your expectations are either impossible, or that your partner simply can't meet them. Aniel and Tamiel, in these moments, carry you through your sorrow toward another opportunity for great love.

Mars is Opposite Neptune

With Mars Opposition Neptune, you experience energetic cooperation between Samael and Tamiel. Samael is the Angel of Temptation. The gift in this Angelic energy is the power to market yourself and your ideas to others.

Tamiel is the Angel of Dreams. Here you find the words and images, the touch and smell that entice others to buy or buy into your schemes.

Spirituality provides a regulator for your feelings and passions. While you definitely want to be successful, the aim is to do so without causing harm to anyone else. Therefore your Angels help you to be persuasive only after finding out what the other person wants or needs.

Sometimes you feel the urge to express yourself in a particular artistic medium. Although you may not sustain this interest long enough to develop expertise, your artistic efforts are deeply satisfying to you and they may grace your home or office, or the homes of family members. If you continue to produce works of art, you may gain a following.

A weakness is the tendency to consider harming others. You may have destructive thoughts, but you never need to act on them. Your Angels help you to channel your energies toward compassion instead of harm.

Another weakness is susceptibility to drugs and alcohol. Here again your meditations with the Angels help you to avoid unnecessary drug use, and to moderate use when drugs are prescribed.

A great strength is your inspired ability to plan grand ventures and then to see them through to completion. Any feelings of inferiority dissipate when you are fully engaged in a project. You magnetically attract just the right people to help you get things under way and approach your goals with few side trips or distractions.

The extent of your compassion is unlimited. As you deepen your awareness of Angelic presence, compassion flows from you to all living things, including the planet itself.

Jupiter is Trine Neptune

With Jupiter Trine Neptune, you experience a gentle philosophical confluence between Zadkiel and Tamiel. When the Angel of Mercy and the Angel of Primordial Energy meet, you understand the depth of happiness that you can experience. You have had glimpses of this happiness in the past, and perhaps even extended periods when you felt blissful. Now you have a tool to make the interaction between these Angels a part of your daily life.

Through your meditation, you can cultivate a sincere love of humanity. Your Angels guide your thoughts toward compassion and integrate your feelings with the knowledge that you need to express compassion effectively in everyday life.

Naturally idealistic, now you can focus on your idealism and make some of those goals become reality for you and for others. As you listen to your Angels, you find that ideas come to you easily and naturally. Even when you don't know the mechanics for a particular action, you sense the right activity and then either learn how to do it, or find people who know.

You are impressionable. This can be seen as a weakness until you learn to manage the impressions you receive. Initially, when you have no filtering system, you receive impressions from everyone and everything. Part of developing the mind in childhood relates to developing structures and organization for feelings and sensations. Even as an adult, you continue to define and refine your mental structures. Eventually you realize that impressions from other people translate almost instantly into meaning for you.

Another possible weakness is a general lack of muscle tone. It's important for you to find an exercise program that works for you. It can be as simple as a walk every day, or as complex as a serious weight or strength training program. The idea is to aim for some exercise each day, and some activity that builds and maintains muscle strength.

Expand your interest in mysticism through study of one or more subject. Pursue connections between your religious beliefs and your mystical thoughts. Your Angels will fill in the blanks in what you read or study. Meditation allows your mind to sort through what you have taken in. Meditation also allows your Angels to speak directly to you and provide additional insights.

Wisdom comes to you through the association of Zadkiel and Tamiel. Your dreams provide a ready source of inspiration because they put the energies of your Angels into pictorial, auditory, and sensory form.

Uranus is Quincunx Neptune

With Uranus Quincunx Neptune, adjustments in your life are mediated by the Angels Zadkiel and Tamiel. Zadkiel is the Angel of Death, and Tamiel of Dreams. Together they extend your understanding of the nature of life and its limits. They also reveal the many ways you can change your life through skillful action.

You have a natural love of ritual. You find, when you think about it, that ritual pervades everything you do. You get along with other people very well because you observe the steps of ritual, entering into each conversation, activity, or association according to socially or culturally defined rules, and in so doing you put other people at ease without undo fuss or bother.

You can develop subconscious talents through conscious expression. In concert with your Angels, you express little pieces of your subconscious awareness in conversation or action. As you do this, you affirm your less conscious abilities and honor them and your Angels. Then your mind is better able to provide ideas and feelings to aid your work.

Inspired idealism may not be what you think you have been looking for, but you are certain to find it eventually. Your Angels send you dreams and ideas all the time, and you have only to pay attention to them. Your idealism provides a foundation for you to help others who experience major disasters or transformations in their lives. When you or others experience loss, your Angels are ready and willing to lift you up.

A potential weakness is the lack of stamina. Physical exercise to build lung capacity and muscle strength is well worth the effort. The physical strength you gain provides a foundation for emotional and spiritual strength.

For mental strength, meditation or yoga provide an organized practice. Kundalini yoga provides a medium for mental focus as well as physical exercise, building all the structures you need to support your developing psychic awareness.

Another possible weakness of structure could lead to high blood pressure and its associated ailments. The above mentioned exercise, meditation, and yoga all serve to reduce blood pressure and strengthen the system so as to avoid dangers of stroke and heart ailments.

Heightened psychic states including clairvoyance are the norm for this combination.

Mercury is Semisextile Neptune

With Mercury Semisextile Neptune, difficult moments of growth take on more creative meaning because of Michael and Tamiel. When the energies of the Angel of warrior spirit and the Angel of Primordial Energies meet, you can expect lots of action! On the one hand, you have the full power of the confessor, and on the other you have the power of punishment. Sounds grim! However, these two Angels are all about showing you the path of personal integrity. They don't just suggest it, they reveal the path of integrity in pictures, words, feelings, and spiritual inspiration.

Naturally, you have a fabulous imagination. You perceive the past, present, and future as a seamless, integrated whole. You can write powerful drama, fiction, or poetry. Your capacity for artistic expression in music, painting, or sculpting can develop if that is where your interests lie. In focusing on Michael and Tamiel, you find you can imbue all your activities with sparkle and glamour that act like magnets for the imaginations of the people around you.

You have skill in communication about feelings and needs reveals itself in your persona. You can counsel others through peer counseling, training in psychology or psychiatry, religious vocation, or spiritual channels. Your intuitive capacity grows as you focus on the Angelic energies available to you.

You sometimes experience poor judgment when you don't think things through carefully. This is an area where meditation allows you direct access to the support of your Angels. Yoga is another good way to coordinate mind and body so that your thoughts are clear and powerful.

As you work with Angelic presence, you find that any former tendency toward wrong thinking is replaced by thoughts of compassion. No longer ruminating on supposed wrongs from others, you find yourself experiencing the spiritual power within them. Then you choose Right Speech to encourage them to express that power more clearly.

The Sun is Semisquare Neptune

With Sun Semisquare Neptune, you experience inner tension, partly as a result of the interaction between Raphael and Tamiel. When the Angel of Healing and the Angel of Primordial Energy meet, you experience the profound nature of healing in your life. It is likely that you always have experienced a degree of physical protection, and now you cultivate that sense of calm and security in your meditations.

Frail physical health may seem to overshadow your life, particularly in childhood. As you gain emotional and spiritual strength, you find that your physical health also improves, and at the very least your attitude about your physical health becomes more creative.

Profound psychic sensitivity is a natural outcome of communion between Raphael and Tamiel. As you immerse yourself in their messages, you find that psychic awareness becomes keener, and you decipher the messages more easily.

Active imagination is another blessing from this team of Angels. You find that your dreams take on clarity as you meditate on them. Even nightmares take on the cloak of creative possibility as you convert the once terrifying content into creative action.

Enthusiasm becomes your watchword! You engage in all your activities with greater vigor and optimism, and your attitude is contagious. All your family and friends bask in the glow of your cheerful persona.

Idealistic thoughts become the impulse for dynamic action. You find that you are able to anticipate the likely results of your actions, and you then gear your efforts accordingly.

Expect your interest in mysticism to increase. Raphael and Tamiel open your heart to divine possibilities, and guide your personal efforts into the channels of integrity.

Saturn is Quintile Neptune

With Saturn Quintile Neptune, your creative talents blossom when you attend to the messages of Kafziel and Tamiel. Kafziel is the Angel of memory, solitude, and tears. Together these Angels put you on the path of personal integrity as surely as you follow one thought with another.

Your slow growth of understanding could be seen as a weakness. However, your path is one of steady, almost certain forward progress. You analyze and consider each decision and each new idea. In this way every step is firm and solid, not tentative or half-hearted.

Intelligent activity becomes part of your nature. Intelligent activity involves the skillful use and application of knowledge, so you must first gain knowledge before you can apply it effectively. Kafziel and Tamiel work in concert in your life by first supplying the means to learn, and then aiding your mind through dreams or visualizations of how to use the information you have gained.

As you allow your Angels into your life, you gain the capacity to maintain hope in the face of seeming disaster. You discover that even in the most difficult circumstances, you have Angelic protection, and you can find a way to work your way out of the problem.

These Angels help you learn how to manage pain. When you or someone else experience severe physical or emotional pain, your Angels provide the means for relieving its severity, as well as providing the path to resolving it altogether.

Zadkiel and Tamiel provide dreams to help you through life's difficulties. You have tenacity of spirit, and your Angels support its use. Sometimes you will have a conscious idea, and you work step by step to make that dream a reality. Other times dreams provide very direct messages about your life. Either way, your mental strength is a special ally throughout your life.

Chiron is Trine Neptune

Because there are hosts of Angels directly involved with healing, assigning one Angel to Chiron is no simple task. In fact, the influence of Chiron in healing is similar to that of the Angelic hosts: this planet is a catalyst for healing energies within you, much as the Angelic hosts provide an atmosphere of healing within which you can work. However, the energy of Sariel resonates strongly with Chiron.

With Chiron trine Neptune, you have the capacity to work brilliantly with children in a healing setting. The communion between Sariel and Tamiel support you in teaching or providing care specifically to young people. When an Angel of healing meets the Angel of primordial energy, the potential for positive change is ignited within you. Your capacity to cleanse your body and mind of all impediments to health is greatly strengthened by this powerful duo.

Your capacity to heal reflects the partnership you can develop with your Angels. Two factors are important to note:

There is duality in everything. Any illness, discomfort, or mental aberration reflects one side of a polarity. On the other side you can find health, sanity, and satisfaction. Love casts out fear, for example. Pain can instill compassion. Emotional healing occurs when you go through your suffering instead of denying it. Angelic greetings traditionally have included the words, 'Fear not,' because the removal of fear from your consciousness creates suitable conditions for healing.

Physiology mirrors consciousness. As you learn the subtle connections between your belief, thoughts, and feelings and the physical body, you begin to see how positive, optimistic, creative thoughts produce healthy feelings, while negative, destructive, pessimistic thoughts create feelings of illness. You retain your free will, but your Angels create a condition in which you can more readily choose the enlightened path toward greater wellness.

Meditation allows room for your imagination to emerge. Focus on your breath or on an object helps you gain a sense of space in which healing energies can blossom easily. Your Angels provide a bridge from your current state to one of greater intuitive understanding of wellness in your life.

Neptune is Conjunct The North Node

With Neptune conjunct the North Node, you experience the close companionship between Tamiel and the entire heavenly host. You are inclined to think that anything is possible when this aspect is active in your life, perhaps because so many Angelic energies contribute to your lively imagination.

A possible weakness is a lack of flexibility in dealings with other people. This is possibly due to high expectations of others, or because you are not always clear about what other people want or how you fit into their plans. You may feel that others disappoint you, and therefore you withdraw in confusion. On the occasions that you experience difficulty in establishing good contacts with other people, call upon Tamiel and the heavenly hosts for comfort and support. They can stimulate imaginative ways of getting your ideas across to others. As a result you are likely to learn how to go with the flow and experience great joy in new friendships and group activities.

Another positive aspect is that you can develop your psychic sensitivity so that you know what is coming in the next moment or the near future. This way you feel better prepared and can appear more adaptable, even if you still feel a bit foggy about the details.

With a host of Angels behind you to bolster your courage, you find that engaging with others in social activities becomes easier.

Neptune is Sextile The Ascendant

With Neptune forming a sextile to your Ascendant, you naturally benefit from Tamiel and your other Angels. You are provided with opportunities throughout your life to build a working relationship with angelic presence and awareness. You are susceptible to influence from the environment and other people, and you benefit from meditation and affirmations that your Angels are always with you. As you practice contacting your Angels, you find that you can identify and choose the most promising opportunities quickly and easily, and thus benefit from them more fully.

You have a natural capacity to channel or to use other psychic skills. If you open yourself to any and all energies, you may feel drained or even assaulted by negativity. Instead, you can enlist the help of your Angels to develop suitable 'shields,' so that positive influences come into your sphere easily, while destructive energies are rebuffed before they can affect your emotions or physical body.

Your imagination can be used for storytelling, music, or creative arts of all kinds. Your talent flows from a deep well of spiritual energy, and your Angels aid you by keeping the flow steady and constant. Even when you cannot come up with a good idea, your Angels are at work building the next idea for you.

Your devotion to other people is noteworthy. As you develop your own protection, you find that you can extend yourself to others by choice, and you discover your energy is virtually limitless.
