 Introduction ***

This Astrological Child Report has been designed as a guide for Ethan's parents, with a special commitment: to help with Ethan's growth and cultural upbringing, to emphasize and strengthen his assets, and to alert the parents to mistakes or possible problems that Ethan could face in his life.

Chapter 1 describes Ethan the way he really is (position of the Sun), and the way his personality is expressed (Ascendant sign). Chapters 2 and 3 describe the influences linked to his mother and father respectively, which DOES NOT mean a description of their personalities, but the way Ethan sees them, experiences them, and which characteristics he takes from each one. In the astrological chart of a brother or sister, the description of parents could be different due to the individual's perspective. Chapter 4 completes the sequence of the description of Ethan's temperament, focusing his mind, his attitude toward education, and his intellectual capacity.

Chapter 5 describes Ethan's destiny, his vocation, his profession, and the probability of success in the material world. In order to get an appropriate view of Ethan's vocational possibilities, it will be necessary to combine what is in this chapter plus what is in Chapter 1 and any other relevant information in the report.

Chapter 6 analyzes the conditions of Ethan's health; some tendencies or possibilities to physical diseases are mentioned, which DOES NOT mean that Ethan is going to suffer from them, one by one. It does mean that those are his weak points and he is inclined to those possibilities. As a complement, some recommendations for Ethan to have better nutrition are mentioned. PLEASE CONSULT A PHYSICIAN REGARDING ANY PHYSICAL PROBLEMS THAT YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE!!! FOLLOW YOUR PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE AND ANY MEDICATION OR THERAPY THAT HE/SHE RECOMMENDS!!! ASTROLOGY SHOULD NEVER BE USED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR PROFESSIONAL MEDICAL ATTENTION!!!

Finally, Chapter 7 describes the astrological influence of the outer planets which affect all the children who were born in the same period of years, producing common ideas and behaviors and subsequent generational characteristics.

It is probable that you may find some contradictions in the report; this is because some planets may be beneficial in a certain area of life while other planets may be less helpful or even harmful. This means that Ethan may have both positive and negative experiences in the same area. You need to draw on your intuition and common sense to come to your own conclusions. But remember that every child, no matter the sign he/she was born in, needs LOVE in order to grow up in the right way.

 Chapter 1 *****

General description of the child: essential nature and personality. Physical body and childhood.

Sun in Cancer:

The Cancer child is very sensitive and moody. He can laugh and cry many times during the same day. Ethan is very perceptive and is fascinated by the world around him, always trying to discover new things. He is attracted to all the colorful images he sees and these images will stay in his mind forever. This child is delicate, gets scared pretty easily, and will probably need a light on at night. His emotional world is vast and he has a great need to give and receive love. At a young age he takes on the role of protector and he usually has pets. He loves to feed them and takes care of them with great dedication and delicacy. Children of Cancer are very good doctors and nurses.

The main influence for Ethan is the home, and he has a special relationship with his mother. He may depend on his parents and brothers or sisters longer than other children might. He can be very shy and sometimes he does not like to be around people. You do not have to force him or compel him to do something. He has a delicate sensitivity and will always remember any bad treatment he has received, which could cause problems or traumas in the future. He is very aware of what is going on around him, so it is very important not to quarrel when he is there, or he could feel guilty about it. Though he is docile, quiet and tender emotionally, it is not easy for him to follow other peoples' rules. He is very individualistic and independent in his way of thinking. Ethan usually gets what he wants and sometimes he is a sort of spoiled child. But if he does not receive the love and tenderness he needs, he could become a rude and lonely person.

He has a bright imagination and it is very probable that he will meet friends of the same kind to play with. He also shows some tendencies towards the arts and creativity in general, especially music. Teachers might complain about his stubbornness or that he is a day-dreamer. Usually when Cancer children get hurt, they keep quiet instead of letting everybody know what happened.

Ethan gathers strength from nature. He would be very happy sowing seeds and watching them grow. He is usually in a good mood and communicates his joy to others. You do not have to worry about his bad moods; they will disappear quickly. He keeps all the things he loves. Even as a grown-up he will still have his toys. This is true also with the things of his heart, including his family, his friends, the neighborhood, the city, etc. He loves to collect things and he is very fond of history. No matter where he lives, he will always keep his memories very fresh. That is why his parents should keep his things, his books, even his own room the same after he leaves home. Only when he feels emotionally complete will he show his authority naturally and become a leader. Girls of Cancer could have a stronger personality than boys of Cancer, and they will be the leaders in their homes. Because a Cancer child develops a deep love for his family, he will always be willing to assist them. All the love he receives from his parents will work as an investment, as he will give it back to them in larger amounts.

Libra Rising Sign:

It is most likely that Ethan will have a very nice pair of dimples on his cheeks when he smiles. His body will be well-proportioned and generally attractive. His eyes can be light colored, or a color or shape which is distinctive. The touch of Venus adds beauty to all his facial features and will make of this person an eternal romantic. Ethan will prefer quiet places rather than noisy ones; soft colors rather than intense ones. His voice as well as his movements will be delicate, and he needs to be treated in the same way. He will always seek balance and harmony all around him, and if he does not find them, he can become very aggressive and bothersome. He will be well-known for being sociable and sympathetic. He will be the adored one; he will be delicate, sweet and of good behavior. Ethan will learn early that his best weapon is charm, and that everybody will want to indulge his whims. He can have a weakness for sweet things, and this could bring future weight problems. These problems can be also due to his laziness and disinclination for physical activities. He will have a strong feeling for justice and will try to be the peacemaker in the quarrels of his brothers, sisters or friends. With this Ascendant position, he will always react in a balanced way.

His childhood is ruled by Venus, and its beam will bring warmth, harmony and general balance. With this, he will probably not have traumatic experiences which could alter his temper. It is also assumed that he will always be in a comfortable atmosphere with all the necessities. Over- protection may be characteristic of one of his parents, probably his mother. Ethan will receive large quantities of love, and this will make him happy; his bond with his parents will never be broken. He will always be attentive to the needs of his family. Parents must encourage him to participate in artistic activities, like music, theater, or painting; though he is likely to choose Law as his future career. If over-protection takes place in an exaggerated way, this child will be spoiled and it will not be easy to make him understand that he is wrong. It is important to give him love and affection but with firm and clear discipline. Everybody will love Ethan due to his charm, generosity and kindness.

Moon in 1st house:

He will be very emotional, sensitive and inconstant. His mood will depend on what is going on around him, not only the emotional climate, but also the weather conditions. Ethan will be affected by the phases of the Moon. His imagination is vast and his sensitivity is acute, and this will make him a very loving person who always gets the sympathy of others. This astrological position can bring fame and recognition, especially working with the public. He will be very protective of his friends, and will always attend to their needs. Because he is so impressionable, his mood can be sad due to a problem which is affecting a person he loves. He may be shy, but he will overcome it, as time goes by. Ethan's childhood will be very important for his future, and he will also be attached to every place he ever lived. Female relatives will play an important role for this boy: mother, sisters, aunts, grandmothers, etc. Negatively, Ethan can be moody, very nervous, restless and inconstant, and his friends may not be able to rely on him consistently.

 Chapter 2 *****

Maternal figure: emotions, feelings, capacity to love and share.

Moon in Scorpio:

Ethan will have very deep and intense emotions. He will either love or hate something or someone, with nothing in between. He will have strong possessive feelings which will magnify his selfish attitude and could create problems with jealousy in his relationships. Ethan will be a difficult boy to control, because his vast inner world will often make him express himself aggressively. He will be attracted to secrets and mysteries; as an adult, this can make him a successful researcher in any field or an avid student of the occult. Ethan's intuition will be powerful and he will clearly feel the weaknesses of his parents, especially if one of them lies in an attempt to convince him about anything.

The relationship with his mother may contain some tension along with intense love. In spite of any disagreements, they will need each other in order to become stronger. His mother must be careful not to model negative feelings like rancor or revenge; on the contrary, she must show him how to be flexible, how to accept others the way they are, and how to share.

Moon Sextile Jupiter:

Ethan will be very popular and everybody will love him because he is so outgoing, spontaneous, and helpful. Even when times of trouble come, Ethan will always smile and make light of his own problems. Ethan will be very honest and will develop a great feeling for and interest in religion. The relationship between Ethan and his mother will be very positive and Ethan will learn to be sincere and generous with others.

Venus in Cancer:

Ethan will prefer close relationships and will always be close to his parents. If he does not receive the right amount of love from his parents, some rivalry with his brothers and sisters can take place. The strong bond formed with his mother at birth will probably never be broken. Ethan will have few friends and will be intensely dedicated to them. He will be very noble with his feelings and will always be ready to help those he loves. Domestic and financial security will be very important for him. His reactions will be very instinctive and emotional; when married, he will be very protective of his family and will be very romantic. His delicate sensitivity can be hurt very easily, so he will choose to be surrounded by affectionate people. Ethan will be attached to everything which makes his heart happy.

Venus in 10th house:

Ethan will have many ambitions and will enjoy social success. During his life, he will receive aid from others. Ethan's relationship with his father will probably be affectionate and this will help him to achieve his goals. His marriage will raise his social status. Ethan was born with a deep sense of diplomacy and will be a successful man with the public.

Venus Trine Pluto:

Ethan will have a great ability to command, and can be a good teacher, preacher, or politician. At an early age he will begin showing strong and clear opinions. Ethan will be honest, intuitive, and dedicated to achieving his goals, showing a special passion for accomplishing the things he likes the best. His charm and charisma will enable him to convince and dominate others. In the future Ethan will have intense and impetuous romances with elements of quarrels and jealousy, but parents must not be afraid of this, because it will strengthen his feelings.

Jupiter in Virgo:

As Ethan grows and matures, he will develop a constructive sense of responsibility, learning to behave as an adult and doing good things for the world. However, Ethan can be a bit shy and will tend to undervalue his own abilities. It is very important to show him how to develop his idealism with freedom and to trust in his own initiatives. Ethan will feel comfortable working for others and doing his job well, whatever it is.

Jupiter in 11th house:

Ethan will be very sociable and he will be attracted to the pleasures of life. Ethan will know many people and will have many friends who will be useful to him. He will like participating in organizations, groups, clubs, or religious affiliations. Probably Ethan will have a big family, and he will love them very much. His goals will not be difficult to reach, and this can make him a bit lazy.

Jupiter Trine Uranus:

Ethan will have great creative power. He will be determined and practical, and will reach any goal for which he works. His personal freedom will be always very important and Ethan will resist any ties that bind or restrict him. Ethan will have great mental energy, and though he could be very warm, he will not be very sentimental.

Neptune in 4th house:

Ethan could experience many changes of residence and become a little confused about his own roots. Perhaps his parents or ancestors were from a foreign country or some other uncommon circumstances will occur in the domestic arena. Ethan will have difficulties stabilizing his home life, and he will only find peace and harmony inside his own self. It is also probable that one of his parents could have an escapist attitude toward problems, which could cause doubts and insecurities in him.

 Chapter 3 *****

Paternal figure: authority, power, capacity to assume responsibilities and to defend oneself in life.

Sun in 10th house:

Ethan will be very ambitious; he will aspire to a high position in life and he will control his own destiny. Ethan was born not to follow others, but to direct his own steps, and will show difficulty and rebelliousness in following any kind of authority. The relationship with his father is very important for him, and in a way, will determine his future ambitions. His father will be well known in social life, but this does not mean that Ethan will follow in his father's footsteps. From him Ethan will learn to fight for his own goals, to act with decision and self-confidence, and to be loyal to his own principles. This astrological position will bring material success, social recognition, and a higher status in Ethan's life. His great energy and pride will make him an invincible person.

Sun Conjunction Venus:

Ethan will be a charming person and will enjoy an active social life. He will be very persuasive and will always try to make people like him. His manner of speaking will be soft and warm. His good disposition will allow him to appreciate all the pleasures of life. Ethan will have a strong feeling for love and romance, and will be always attracted to every kind of beauty. His deep aesthetic sense will make him excel in artistic activity and also to enjoy natural, harmonious and relaxing places. Ethan will probably have, besides his charming personality, a very nice and attractive body.

Sun Opposition Uranus:

Ethan will be anarchical, liberal, and independent and always in opposition to authority. He can be very untidy and thus waste the great potential of his energies. He will attack whatever stands in his way, as he needs to be free. Ethan will be impulsive, eccentric, and will follow his own rules. He will also be original but impractical. Ethan will always be nervous and will be inclined to dissipate his energy. He must learn to be more cautious, and, because he is inclined to have accidents, to be in less of a hurry. As he is very particular and unique, Ethan will be a very difficult child to raise.

Sun Opposition Neptune:

Ethan can undervalue his own abilities and aptitudes, and as a consequence, he will not believe in his own success. He will be very sensitive to what is going on around him, to the conflict, to criticism, and everything that affects his emotional world. Ethan will absorb the tensions around him and sometimes will suffer if his parents, brothers, sisters, or friends are suffering. He will be a very idealistic daydreamer; he will need more realism and objectivity. Ethan will be easily deceived by people due to his idealization of others. His father must not be too vulnerable or show inclinations to bad habits, as Ethan can learn from him an escapist attitude in dealing with problems.

Sun Trine Pluto:

Ethan will have very intense and dedicated inner motivations, which could put him in a leadership position. He will be passionate about the things he likes, and possibly a fanatic about his ideas. Ethan will not be satisfied with the status quo and will work hard to transform things into his ideal. He will have great concentration, will power, and a good capacity to throw off any illness or weakness. Ethan will be very interested in occult sciences and the mysteries of life, and will develop excellent perceptive abilities.

Sun Sextile Mars:

Ethan will be very constructive, enthusiastic, and dynamic. His great energy will enable him to take initiatives and lead people. He will be able to achieve all his goals because of his great decisiveness and his courage to live the everyday adventure. Ethan will be very frank, spontaneous, and he will always go straight to the point. Ethan will also have a strong feeling of honor and personal integrity. He will be very protective of his family and friends.

Saturn in Aquarius:

Ethan will have excellent powers of concentration and a scientific and democratic mind. It will be easy for him to invent things, to develop new ideas.

to interpret the abstract, and also to understand mathematics. Ethan will have many ambitions and will work hard to make them real. He will be conscientious in dealing with people, as well as loyal to his friends. He will have a strong feeling of freedom, but this will not prevent him from working in groups. Ethan will have a selfish and resentful attitude toward the things he does not like. His intellectual approach can make him uncompromising and detached.

Saturn in 5th house:

Ethan will tend to be aloof, not very demonstrative, and an inhibited child. To overcome these limitations, it is very important that the relationship between father and son be a loving one. Ethan can feel more comfortable with older people than with other children; usually his behavior will be comparable with that of an adult. Though Ethan will be shy, he will be deep and loyal to his feelings. His creativity can be directed into the sciences and invention. As an adult, he will choose a serious and responsible mate. He will probably have few children, as he will consider this a matter of deep responsibility. He must learn to enjoy things freely and to express his emotions with the same intensity he feels inside.

Saturn Square Pluto:

Ethan can seem to be domineering and very aggressive, but this will just be his way of hiding his own insecurities. Ethan will resist strongly any change in his life. He will show great strength, but also inflexibility and willfulness at the same time. Ethan must learn to be more considerate of others; he must try to avoid dominating everybody at every moment; and he should show his feelings more freely without the fear of seeming weak.

Mars in Taurus:

Ethan will be very obstinate, practical, determined, and very secure. Once he knows which way he wants to go, nothing will change his mind. Ethan will work very carefully and slowly, but the results will always be very good. He can have good aptitude for handicrafts or other manual activities. Ethan will be very stubborn and he will feel uncomfortable if someone wants to change the natural rhythm of his movements. He will love acquiring things and will be very possessive of them. Ethan will tend to be very possessive with people too, and jealousy will not be uncommon in Ethan's relationships. It will be very important for him to express his anger while it is happening, because his natural tendency is to keep everything to himself, and then to explode when he can not hold it anymore. He will depend on his own energies to earn money and will have many possessions which will give him security and comfort.

Mars in 8th house

Ethan will be very intrepid, brave, and determined. He will experience every situation intensely and deeply. Ethan will be attracted to risky situations, mystery, and danger, and his great courage will make him fearless. It is very important for Ethan to take care of himself by moderating his habits; otherwise, he could be exposed to risks or accidents all his life. His sexual life will be very important, so he must receive a good education in this matter in order to dispense with taboos and preconceptions. He could also be interested in occult sciences and mysteries in general. He would make an excellent researcher. If Ethan decided to manage other people's money, he could experience some problems or arguments.

Mars Opposition Pluto:

Ethan will be a strong, aggressive, dominant, and impatient person. He must learn to control his emotions and how he expresses them and seek to develop politeness and calmness. Ethan will be very jealous with the people he loves, and he will be very possessive and domineering. His selfishness can make him blind, and thus, apt to make impulsive and sometimes destructive decisions. His lack of patience and tolerance could hurt his possibilities for success in his life, so Ethan must learn how to control himself, how to deal with his aggression in a constructive way, and how to channel his dynamic energy in an organized and enduring way.

Mars Square Saturn:

Ethan's behavior can range from aggressiveness to apathy. He could also show a selfishness which could mar his relationships with others. He must learn to be more flexible and to express his wishes more gently. Though he will be able to count on large amounts of energy, Ethan may not have the ability to handle it or at least to direct it toward his purposes. There can be some inhibitions inside him, which prevent him from expressing disagreement; this may cause him to have some hidden resentments. He will probably have some disagreements with his father, causing much tension in their relationship. Both of them must learn to be respectful of each other and try not to dominate the other.

Mars Trine Uranus:

Ethan will be a hard worker and will show great enthusiasm, vitality, physical strength, and creativity. He will be self-controlled and will have a very positive attitude about life. Ethan will solve his problems very easily, reacting with accuracy and efficacy. To excel in any field, Ethan must feel that he can move and express himself freely. Ethan will be attracted to new, original, and revolutionary ideas, but he will reject any kind of violence and fanaticism.

Mars Trine Neptune:

His convictions and spiritual faith will be very solid and deep. Though Ethan could be very emotional and sensitive, he will have much self-control. Ethan must learn how to trust his own intuition and to manifest his ideas in practical and realistic ways.

Uranus in 4th house:

Ethan will have many changes of address and will also have ups- and-downs with his family. His mother will have a very distinctive personality and will be original and independent with her ideas. Generally, he will have unusual ancestors and will have an irregular childhood, possibly being separated from one of his parents or living in a special or uncommon situation. Ethan will not choose a quiet life, so he will often change his residence, job, lover, friends, etc. When mature, he will be interested in astrology and occult sciences.

Pluto in 2nd house:

Ethan will have different sources of income, becoming wealthy from his talent for financial management. He will be a collector of material objects and could treat the people he loves as possessions, trying to dominate them and being extremely jealous. The influence of his father will be extremely important in the development of his mind.

Mercury Opposition Saturn:

Ethan will develop a strong sense of justice and will be very sensitive to situations of injustice and pain. He will have a curious, outgoing, and optimistic mind. He will want to know the human animal and all its multiple aspects and manifestations. His philosophical mind will be always wondering about the purpose of his and others' existence. It will be very easy for him to communicate with people and also to learn languages. Most likely he will travel frequently, which will allow him to expand his knowledge. Also, Ethan will be interested in religion and will give much deep thought to his approach to God.

 Chapter 5 *****

He will be interested in the environment, ecology, nutrition, and nature in all its expressions. Ethan will be very tolerant, kind, and a bit indulgent. Ethan will seek approval and support in order to reach his goals; often his progress will come to a standstill if he does not receive the help he feels he needs to go on.  Chapter 6 *****

Ethan will be subject to some mistakes in medical diagnosis, so it will be wise for him to consult two or more professionals when the situation requires an important treatment or surgery.

As a part of his generation, Ethan will be logical and objective; he will think deeply about religion and spiritual matters and will adopt a rational position while making decisions.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

Ethan will have great creative and artistic ability. Also, he will fight against injustice and will try to reform the legislative system. His intuition will be powerful and will compel him to study and uncover the secrets of nature. Most likely, his ideas about freedom or the way he will use his mystic knowledge will not be totally understood; however, his interest in this matter will not vanish.

Pluto in Scorpio:

Ethan's generation will be fascinated by all the mysteries of life and will be interested in research into metaphysics. It is probable that the growth of the sciences in general will be due to the contributions of their investigations done in esoteric fields. This group will also be very interested in studies on genetics, archaeology, the powers of the mind, hypnosis, sex, etc. They will generally show emotional behavior and will be inclined to push themselves to their furthest limits. As a part of this group, Ethan will be extremely sensitive and receptive to the vibrations around him; he will be interested in mysterious things and will develop powerful intuition.
