Introduction

Independent of mind and spirit, cats have always displayed outright indignant behavior at any attempt to train them. Having a mind of their own and a highly changeable nature, cats are unlike any other animal you've owned. The favorites of many, they are misunderstood by all. Astrology helps us to understand some of the quirks these highly intelligent animals display.

Are they good house pets or will they drive you crazy until, against your better judgement, you let them out? Refined hunting skills and sharp instincts are common traits of most cats. Some are known for their patience, or perhaps for nurturing others. Others just prefer your lap, or to lounge on the sofa until served their favorite meal.

The many personalities we see displayed in these wonderful creatures are all part of the plan. Would you automatically choose a beautiful Taurus Cat if you knew that Venus will always make her attractive? Grumpy Cat's chart can show you just how important some things are for her survival. What makes Grumpy Cat tick and what can she absolutely not do without? How can you add more enjoyment to Grumpy Cat's life? Does she need companionship or is she just as happy not sharing your attentions with another cat? These are some of the questions we seek to answer when looking at our beloved feline's chart. Astrology can guide you to get the most enjoyment out of your cat. Grumpy Cat will thank you for it.

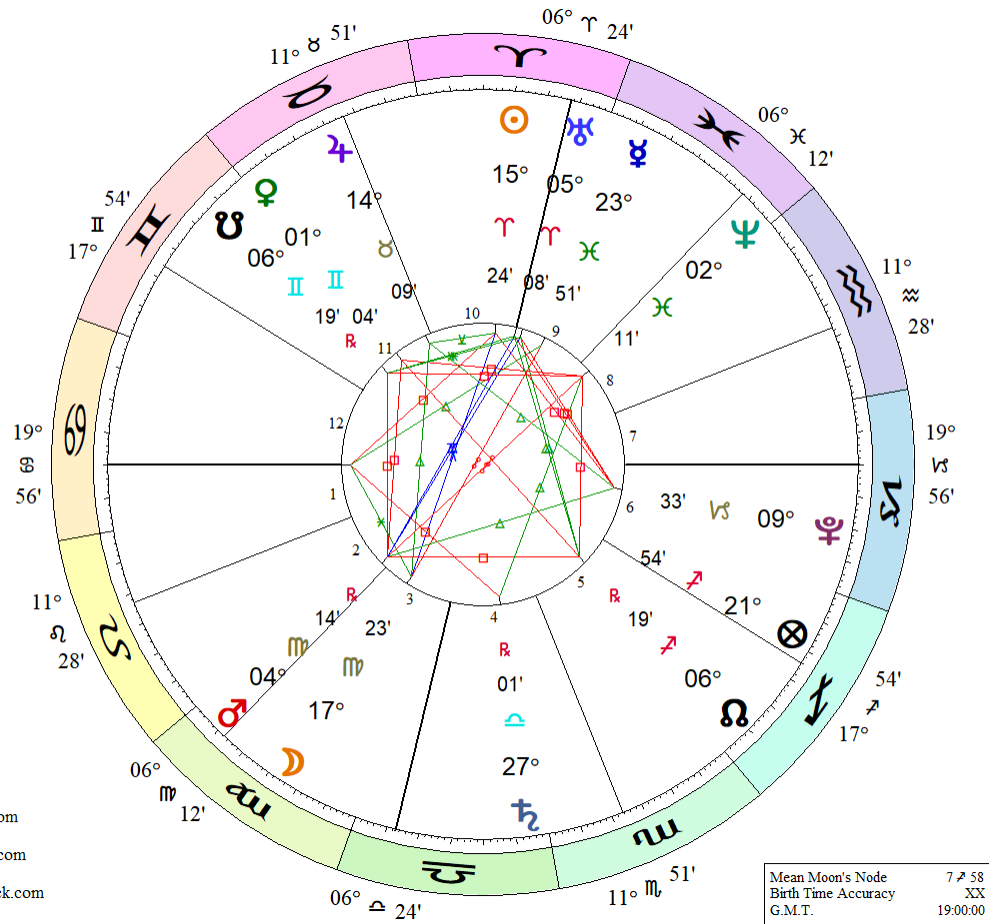

There are 4 basic elements that make up a chart; they are earth, water, air and fire. If Grumpy Cat has four or more planets in one of these elements she is considered to have more than average. Applying a weight or number to these planets, we can determine if the chart has tendencies that would be influenced by being overweighted in that particular element. The Ascendant, Midheaven and planets on the angles are also given a number, which is included in determining the makeup of a chart.

A true lap kitty, Grumpy Cat loves to sit and sleep all day, barely moving - except to the food dish. You may need to check to see if she is breathing. Often a bit of a couch potato, Grumpy Cat can be found lounging by the fireside or in a sunny garden where she can take a mud bath to smother the fleas. You don't have to worry about Grumpy Cat - she will never wander far. Grumpy Cat is quite content at home and can be very pushy when it comes to any changes you force upon her. Give her a favorite chair and when you return from work, Grumpy Cat will look like she has never moved. She is not one to make sudden moves so it may be difficult for her to catch prey at first. Grumpy Cat's patience will win at the end when she outsmarts her prey. Waiting days without movement, Grumpy Cat eventually wins by sheer determination. No one can outwait Grumpy Cat at her game.

Ascendant

The Ascendant, or sign on the horizon at birth, changes approximately every two hours. To get a true picture of an animal, an exact time of birth is very helpful. From the Ascendant, not only do we learn the appearance and characteristics of an animal, we also derive a pattern of the chart itself. The Ascendant is the face we show to strangers - animal and human alike. We may view Grumpy Cat as her Sun sign, but others will see the sign on the Ascendant first. The rising sign dictates how Grumpy Cat portrays herself to others. These characteristics are entirely different from what we see when Grumpy Cat is in her home environment. Learn more about how others view Grumpy Cat.

Cancer Rising:

Grumpy Cat never leaves the kitchen unless you're leading her to water. Yes, Grumpy Cat doesn't mind the water, so have an aquarium available to entertain her. Turn the faucet on occasionally and let her bat some water around. Grumpy Cat's sensitivity is what attracts you the most. Often coming when called without words, Grumpy Cat seems to know what you think and feel. She is always attached to your side - you can't leave the room without your friend. These cats can possess either a big full moon face or a crescent face and are often very sensitive to outer stimuli. Their stomachs tell them when things aren't right; finicky or ravenous, their appetite changes with their moods and possibly the Moon. Romantic to other animals, Grumpy Cat likes to cuddle whether spayed or not. This lovely feline will bond with you and demonstrates her love often. A protector and nurturer of all, Grumpy Cat could someday adopt other babies, including your own. Grumpy Cat feels it is her job to care for others.

Sun

The Sun is Grumpy Cat's source of energy and vitality. Its placement in her chart indicates Grumpy Cat's true identity, which may or may not always be apparent. Just watch the façade that appears when Grumpy Cat is placed in the position of meeting newcomers. The side that she shows to others may be very different from the one you saw a few minutes ago when you were all alone with her. And that's only after Grumpy Cat trusts you enough to show it. The basic needs and patterns in Grumpy Cat's life are strongly influenced by the sign and placement of the Sun. This is where Grumpy Cat puts her best paw forward. This is what Grumpy Cat is really like when all barriers and inhibitions are removed. She gets recognition here sometimes, making a visible difference in your world, too. You will always remember Grumpy Cat by the characteristics displayed by the Sun even if it's just a quirk or habit. Sometimes it is beneficial in naming your new kitten to use your keen observation to help you find a suitable title to call her by. Try to determine what it is that makes her stand out from the rest by discovering the Sun sign individuality of your cat.

Sun in Aries:

A fierce hunter by nature, Grumpy Cat needs to chase prey for the conquest and the game of it all. The idea of hunting for food is negligible, although Grumpy Cat will be first to demonstrate it's her prey only. Having a me first attitude in all she does makes it important that you feed her first. Keep this cat exercised with climbing poles and a large deck she can watch the birds from. Grumpy Cat has been known to cover a large territory looking for prey. Active and aggressive, Grumpy Cat must be allowed to forage on her own with free reign of the area even if it just includes your family room. Keep a handful of catnip mice that she can tear apart for treats.

Sun in the 10th house:

Grumpy Cat climbed the trenches to get here and now looks at the nice little nest she created. It is difficult to get her to give up what is hers. Grumpy Cat is stuck as a permanent part of your household; earthquakes couldn't make her move from home. Success comes to Grumpy Cat later in life after many unsuccessful attempts. She gets through each and every setback letting it roll right off her back. Grumpy Cat gets exactly what she wants despite some initial challenges in life to make it more interesting. Her home is her castle.

Moon

The Moon tells us how Grumpy Cat bonds emotionally with us and her other feline friends. It's hard to believe, but cats really are moved by emotions - some more than others. If you ever really want to know what makes your kitty enjoy life look to the Moon sign. Soon you will discover what she can't live without. It could be something as simple as a catnip mouse, but it will bring lasting enjoyment and a bond with you that will be memorable for life. Learn what your cat desires the most.

Moon in Virgo:

Grumpy Cat is the caretaker of your household. Often seen grooming or feeding other animals, even of different species, Grumpy Cat thinks nothing of providing for a group of abandoned squirrels along with her own kittens. Grumpy Cat's duty is to watch out for you, too, seeing to it that you eat in her company - the better to share your taste in different or healthy choices of food. Tuna delight is no alternative for sushi but might be substituted if you serve up some cat grass for appetizer. She is a true vegetarian cat - make it a point to always grow plants that are kitten safe. Stomach ailments can result from stress, so make mealtimes special, possibly serving Grumpy Cat in a place that is free from disturbance by other animals. Leave Grumpy Cat to watch over your other animals and she will see to it that all is well and communication between species is understood by all. The Mother Theresa of Cats has entered your dull ordinary life to make you understand what it means to care for others. Learn and let others judge you for all good deeds to animals. The rescue of feral and stray cats will be part of the chores Grumpy Cat will assist you with, sometimes bringing them to your door when they are in need of attention and food. Give this perky, smart feline the reward of her life by living your life in awe of her.

Moon in the 3rd house:

The continuous noise you hear in your house is Grumpy Cat's attempt to communicate with you. A fine talker she is - it won't be long before your understanding makes you wonder how Grumpy Cat learned the language. Sometimes you wish you didn't speak the same language - she can be so insistent when needing your attention. She meows in the morning (let me out and feed me), at night (let me out and feed me) and meows when you return home after a hard day's work (meow and why haven't you fed me yet?). Not reluctant to travel, Grumpy Cat may actually enjoy it, seeing the neighborhood while taking a drive, perched upon your shoulders. A short walk in safe areas may also be enjoyed. Not resistant to other pets, Grumpy Cat actually enjoys the company they provide for her. Keep a radio or TV on when you are not at home to provide the continuous stimuli needed to entertain this curious cat. A bird feeder within view or pet video would do wonders to cure the boredom Grumpy Cat feels. Add another pet to your household and watch Grumpy Cat open up to it with her wonderful ability to communicate.

Moon Trine Jupiter:

This extraordinary kitten may have survived more than her share of hardships. A strong vitality and endurance provides what is required to overcome any obstacles. She is resourceful by instinct, and quick use of intuition allows Grumpy Cat to survive circumstances others would succumb to. Grumpy Cat seems surrounded by angels who watch over her constantly, preventing injury.

Mercury

Mercury, the planet of communications, suggests how felines communicate with us. There are many different forms of communication besides meowing. Body language will also give us clues into what our cats want. But their most important form of communication is reflected in their ability to send messages telepathically. Some cats are better at this than others but equally important is our receptiveness to such information. We all know how Grumpy Cat can get her point across when she wants to. Now learn what you can do to facilitate greater sensitivity to what it is your cat has to say.

Mercury in Pisces:

Afraid of her own shadow when young, Grumpy Cat can be almost irresistibly charming as you take her under your wing for protection. Grumpy Cat is on your wavelength and there is no doubt she feels everything you do. Think positive thoughts to her and soon fear will banish. Strangers can present a problem for Grumpy Cat, who is often seen resorting to secret hidden places for observation rather than dealing with the unknown intrusion of a stranger. Grumpy Cat comes out of her shell when there are other animals to care for. This does not have to be a younger kitten or even a cat; other species will get equal attention, including you.

Mercury in the 9th house:

Grumpy Cat is one adaptable cat. Travel is one of the things she adores most. Grumpy Cat's love of adventure is hard to compete with. Being always on the go looking for adventure can leave poor Grumpy Cat tired and exhausted from roaming the streets. Her multilingual environment has no bearing on how she communicates. The universal language of telepathy is used, making ordinary language unnecessary.

Venus

Venus shows us how sociable Grumpy Cat can be. It gives us a clue as to what she is attracted to. This can range from inanimate objects to objects of desire. Venus exerts an energy that attracts you and others to Grumpy Cat like a magnet. How your feline returns this affection is revealed by Venus. Venus can determine whether Grumpy Cat has a pleasant disposition or is of a less affectionate nature.

Venus in Gemini:

Grumpy Cat is most content when you spend the day talking to her. A natural communicator, Grumpy Cat may get a little carried away at times. She needs that constant reassurance of your voice to communicate your care. A bit noisier than most, Grumpy Cat will be the first to alert you to anything awry. New visitors will have to listen to a whole slew of information from Grumpy Cat before they can settle down. It doesn't matter that you can't understand Grumpy Cat, she just likes to hear herself talk.

Venus in the 11th house:

Grumpy Cat brings more friends over than you care to have in your home. Like a magnet, Grumpy Cat attracts other animal friends to her side. She often surprises you with who accompanies her home. Before you know it, you have a host of other animals waiting for leftovers. Grumpy Cat enjoys their company and they may have provided aid to her in the past. Never forgetting who helped her attain goals in the past, Grumpy Cat holds her friends on a pedestal, as they do her.

Venus Square Mars:

Grumpy Cat can be too pushy for her own good. Expecting attention and receiving none might be just the excuse she needs to provoke you. Grumpy Cat's activity level can irk you at times, especially during those early morning hours. Not knowing when to stop, Grumpy Cat takes it to extremes. She knows no limits and will not like confinement. It is best to provide Grumpy Cat with lots of play time so she can eliminate all that excess energy.

Venus Square Neptune:

Grumpy Cat may have come to you after losing her previous owner, or it may be her own lifetime cat partner that she grieves for. Her mournful eyes make you aware of what sorrow looks like. Help this sensitive feline to heal by offering the love and attention she deserves. Don't wait for her to reach out for affection; you may have to be the aggressor and coax her to your side by gentle words. Play her favorite music.

Mars

Mars shows how Grumpy Cat expresses her energy and enthusiasm for life. Mars gives passion and vitality to the place in the astrology chart where it is located.

Mars in Virgo:

Patient and exact in motion, this feline is known for accurately pouncing on prey from a long distance. Her target is rarely missed and Grumpy Cat often looks as if she has calculated every move before acting. A desire to care for other animals may keep Grumpy Cat busy for most of her waking hours. She is a picky eater - only the best will do.

Mars in the 2nd house:

A collector of prizes, Grumpy Cat lives for the reward. Praise her often and offer a treat. You will have a friend for life. Grumpy Cat owns you and will not allow others to share in the beautiful relationship that the two of you have.

Mars Square Venus:

Sometimes you find Grumpy Cat's actions distasteful. It's not that she does them intentionally to displease you, but she can't always help herself. Just because Grumpy Cat is sometimes unable to please you by doing things your way like other normal kittens do, does not mean that you should love her any less. Allow her territorial displays as long as they don't involve hurting another animal.

Mars Opposition Neptune:

Overeating and sleeping could cause Grumpy Cat to become fat and lazy. Provide her with adequate stimuli to get her motivated and off the couch. Keep a cat video handy for when you're away. Grumpy Cat needs encouragement to not be frightened of others; her imagination or fear may cause her unnecessary problems.

Jupiter

Jupiter is where the window of opportunity opens up for Grumpy Cat. This is where Grumpy Cat finds her fun. Pleasant memories from these times provide a lifetime of happiness for Grumpy Cat. Jupiter's influence is truly beneficial in most cases but can also suggest an area of excess, with food being the major culprit.

Jupiter in Taurus:

This is a warm and tender kitty cat you have here. She displays loving affection to all that warrant it. Grumpy Cat may need to investigate your loyalties first, but once proven you'll be provided with more than enough love from this sympathetic kitty cat. Grumpy Cat knows when you need some attention and will lavish it on you. The rewards of your love satisfy her every desire, although a chicken breast or two doesn't hurt either. Not particularly fond of fish, Grumpy Cat might find meat and fowl her preference.

Jupiter in the 11th house:

Grumpy Cat has more friends than you. This doesn't stop with other cats - horses, dogs and rabbits can also be Grumpy Cat's best friends. A true lover of companionship, Grumpy Cat can almost always be found in a group of her trusted and loyal friends. Grumpy Cat, the party animal, is sure to show everyone a good time.

Jupiter Trine Moon:

Grumpy Cat is friendly and popular with many. Visitors to your home often come just to visit with her. Grumpy Cat's personal magnetism brings many to her side over the years. A special healing ability is demonstrated and grows stronger with age. Make frequent visits to the disabled or elderly who would benefit from the friendly touch of your favorite feline, Grumpy Cat.

Jupiter Trine Pluto:

Grumpy Cat knows how to use her winning personality to draw others to respect her. Grumpy Cat's powerful magnetism makes her win in the end, bringing the authority she so craves.

Saturn

Saturn shows us where there is restraint or obstructions in Grumpy Cat's life. Saturn also shows us lessons Grumpy Cat needs to learn in life and how she might accomplish this. This is where Grumpy Cat learns to be resourceful and how to survive in life.

Saturn in Libra:

Grumpy Cat is fair in judging other creatures, treating all as equals. Everyone has to get along when Grumpy Cat is around or you may find her taking it upon herself to teach you how. She is always easy to get along with as long as things are done her way; the rules say so - especially with all the recognition Grumpy Cat earns. Keep Grumpy Cat's cat chow low in magnesium to prevent urinary tract problems.

Saturn in the 4th house:

Grumpy Cat may have lost a parent, either feline or human, causing her an upset early in life. Because of this, her current status in life is greatly improved. Grumpy Cat's life also improves with age. She much prefers to stay indoors to wandering about. Grumpy Cat is a homebody who feels most comfortable sitting on your divan.

Uranus

Uranus demonstrates genius and intuitive abilities. Grumpy Cat's independence is strongly influenced by where Uranus falls in her chart. This is where Grumpy Cat's talents lie - waiting for you to discover them by subtle communication.

Uranus in Aries:

Grumpy Cat shows independent ambition that is unlike any other cat. She is very resourceful and capable of withstanding long periods out on her own. This may be the situation that Grumpy Cat is presented with when offensive or misunderstood behavior gets her in trouble. Cast out on her own where survival of the fittest is the main theme, Grumpy Cat will usually fare well. Grumpy Cat's desire to roam and her fondness for change may contribute to the many different places she calls home.

Uranus in the 9th house:

Grumpy Cat has a very original and inventive mind, bordering on genius. There is no trick or plan too difficult for Grumpy Cat to understand, but many who leave her bored. She is a pillar of information to the cats in the neighborhood; they would be wise to learn from her. Grumpy Cat is capable of dreaming constructive dreams by transferring them to you. Dreams then becomes action, and you thought you were the one that came up with the idea.

Uranus Square Pluto:

Grumpy Cat is torn between you and the alley she came from. Travel in high places brings Grumpy Cat to her object of desire. This may be another cat or something more unusual. These activities may all be hidden from you until you catch her in the act. Secret places to store her things are very important to Grumpy Cat. You may be privileged to come upon such a cache some day and observe the many missing objects you've lost over the years.

Neptune

Neptune shows you where and how Grumpy Cat spends her spare time. Where does Grumpy Cat's imagination take her when you are not there? Does she have a favorite escape that you are unaware of? What fantasy truly inspires Grumpy Cat and sends her to nirvana? Grumpy Cat returns here often when stressed, or just for fun. Neptune shows where she can achieve the same sensation with a little help from you.

Neptune in Pisces:

Grumpy Cat may have come from a shelter and have a retiring nature, but that does not stop her from being well liked. She is the recipient of kind action as well as the one to give aid to others, and cheerfully so. The most compassionate cat you've ever found, Grumpy Cat usually is the type to give of herself regularly and without fail. Grumpy Cat's fantasy includes large bodies of water where she can watch as fish are caught and fed to her fresh.

Neptune in the 8th house:

Grumpy Cat's obsession with death and the spirit world may be just a little too much for you to conceive of. Known to see spirits and converse with those who have passed, Grumpy Cat may occasionally be seen playing with her imaginary friends. She is capable of reading your mind as well as the minds of others who visit your household; it will be very difficult to hide your true feelings from her. Grumpy Cat's judgement can be trusted, and a constant awareness of her perception of things can be very helpful.

Neptune Square Venus:

Grumpy Cat just doesn't seem to fit in with the rest of the crowd. Her restless and chaotic movements may be caused by her desire to be noticed. This may often be frustrated by an inability to fit in or make her needs known.

Neptune Opposition Mars:

Grumpy Cat acts on impulse, often placing herself in harm's way. Attuned to another realm, her senses don't always acclimate her to reality. Keep her in a safe environment that has entertaining possibilities to keep Grumpy Cat feeling alive. Bring out the wild cat by introducing her to a new play toy that requires Grumpy Cat to be more creative.

Pluto

Pluto is where Grumpy Cat finds release from those powers that bind her. Old conditions that are no longer useful are eliminated. Obsessive or compulsive behavior that needs to be eliminated or changed will be here. Pluto forces Grumpy Cat to deal with it. Pluto shows her how to transform for better or worse, and you may be the most likely Pluto character in Grumpy Cat's chart. An awareness that nothing is permanent helps Grumpy Cat accept the challenge that loss has brought her to where she is. Grumpy Cat will find many new beginnings where Pluto falls in her chart. A constant renewal and regeneration awaits her there. Although not usually very malleable, Grumpy Cat learns that this is where she must change to continue as planned. Grumpy Cat soon sees that change can be good when she senses the improvement in your acceptance of her.

Pluto in Capricorn:

Top cat for all to see, Grumpy Cat has a magnetic personality that takes her far. Others need only be submissive to receive the full attention of Grumpy Cat. Give Grumpy Cat the authority she requires to be number one in your household. This may even include you. An excellent provider, Grumpy Cat will be sure to leave you little surprises on occasion, just to prove how well she can care for you.

Pluto in the 6th house:

Grumpy Cat's need to reform you and the other members of the household can be shocking at times as she expects complete control of the circumstances. Learning to live with a disability or illness can suddenly change all that, placing the emphasis elsewhere. As Grumpy Cat deals with reforming her previous self, she soon forgets about other, less important things.

Pluto Trine Jupiter:

Grumpy Cat just keeps expanding, welcoming new things and situations into her home. Having a natural curiosity does not mean that Grumpy Cat relinquishes any of her authority, Grumpy Cat just uses her curiosity to satisfy her desire to roam and see new horizons.

Pluto Square Uranus:

Grumpy Cat's history with change is monumental. Often starting over many different times, Grumpy Cat has a life that may span the continent. A true example of the cat with nine lives. She is curious enough to explore unknown territory even if it means moving to a completely different environment.
